

COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

Brussels, 14.12.1995
COM(95) 664 final

Recommendation for a Council Decision concerning the signature of an Agreement for scientific and technical cooperation between the European Community and the State of Israel

(presented by the Commission)

1. Scientific and technical cooperation between the European Community and the State of Israel has been flourishing since 1983 under the EC/Israel Cooperation Agreement of 1975. Israeli research institutes have been able to take part in multilateral research projects through the specific programme "Life science and technologies for developing countries" (STD, up to 1991), the "International scientific cooperation with the countries of Latin America, Asia and the Mediterranean" (I.S.C.-ALA/MED) on a bilateral basis, and, since 1992, on a regional Mediterranean basis through the Avicenne Initiative.

This cooperation has generally been very satisfactory, thanks to the very high level of scientific competence on the Israeli side and to the dense network of longstanding relations in scientific and technical cooperation between the two sides, which has produced interesting results.

2. With a view to the updating of the EC/Israel Cooperation Agreement, the Commission held exploratory talks with the Israeli Governmental authorities in 1993. A broadening and deepening of the present framework of EC/Israel cooperation in science and technology was discussed in detail.

The initiative also tied in with the negotiations for an association agreement between the European Community and the State of Israel along the lines of the directives adopted by the Council on 20 December 1993.

On 29 September 1994, the Council authorized the Commission to negotiate an agreement on S&T cooperation. The negotiating brief was subsequently modified by the Council Decision of 17 July 1995.

3. The negotiations resulted in the attached draft agreement, including its three annexes on the allocation of intellectual property rights, the rules governing the financial contribution of Israel and the rules of participation of Community research entities in Israeli RTD programmes.

The draft Agreement provides for :

- participation of Israeli research entities in the specific programmes adopted for the implementation of the Fourth Framework Programme, excluding the nuclear sector;
- financial contribution by Israel to the budget of the specific programmes of the Fourth Framework Programme;

- participation of Community research entities in Israeli research programmes on themes equivalent to those of the Fourth Framework Programme;
 - regular discussions on orientations and priorities of research policy in Israel and the Community and exchange of views on cooperation prospects;
 - timely information on the implementation of RTD programmes and their results in Israel and the Community.
4. The Agreement has been initialled on 31 October 1995. The results of the negotiations are in conformity with the negotiating directives as adopted by the Council on 29 September 1994 and as subsequently modified by the Council Decision of 17 July 1995 (comitology).
5. In the light of the above-mentioned considerations the Commission proposes that the Council :
- decides the signature of the Agreement on behalf of the Community;
 - authorizes the President of the Council to appoint the persons duly empowered to sign on behalf of the Community.

and the State of Israel.

agreement providing for the negotiation of a cooperation agreement in the of the European Union adopted a Framework Programme of European Community activities in the field of research and technological development

Programme";

WHEREAS, without prejudice to the relevant provisions of the Treaty instituting the European Community, this Agreement and any activities entered into under it will in no way affect the powers vested in the Member States to undertake bilateral activities with Israel in the fields of science, technology, research and development, and to conclude, where appropriate, agreements to that end;

2. The proportionality factor governing Israel's contribution shall be obtained by establishing the ratio between Israel's gross domestic product, at market prices, and the sum of gross domestic products, at market prices, of the Member States of the European Union. The rights and obligations concerning the research generated by visiting researchers, if any, in respect of IP shall also be addressed in the said arrangements.
2. In the implementation of this Agreement, as regards participation in the Fourth Framework Programme, information and IP shall be exploited in conformity with the mutual interests of the Community and Israel, and the contractual arrangements shall provide accordingly. In the case of information and IP generated in the execution of a project pursuant to the Fourth Framework Programme, the contractual arrangements shall provide also for the rights specified in Article 5 of the Agreement to be granted only concerning information and IP arising after the effective date of Israel's financial contribution.
3. Information or IP created in the course of joint research and not addressed in the contractual arrangements shall be allocated, according to the principles set out in the contractual arrangements, including dispute settlement. Where no binding decision is reached by the agreed dispute resolution technique chosen by participants, such information or IP shall be owned jointly by all the participants involved in the joint research from which the information or IP results.
Failing agreement on exploitation, each participant to whom this provision applies, shall have the right to use such information or IP for his own commercial exploitation with no geographical limitation.
4. Each Party shall ensure that the other Party and its participants may have the rights to IP allocated in accordance with the principles set out in Section I of this Annex.

5. While maintaining the conditions of competition in areas affected by the Agreement, each Party shall endeavour to ensure that rights acquired pursuant to this Agreement and arrangements made under it are exercised in such a way as to encourage in particular :

- (i) the dissemination and use of information created, disclosed, or otherwise made available, under the Agreement; and
- (ii) the adoption and implementation of international standards.

- and six-twelfths of its contribution not later than 15 July.

However, the six-twelfths, to be paid not later than 20 January are calculated on the basis of the amount set out in the statement of revenue of the preliminary draft budget: the regularization of the amount thus paid shall occur with the payment of the six-twelfth not later than 15 July.

2. 2. The contributions of Israel shall be expressed and paid in ECUs.
2. 3. Israel shall pay its contribution under this Agreement according to the schedule in para. 2.1. above. Any delay in payment shall give rise to the payment of interest at a rate equal to the one-month interbank offered rate (IBOR) in ECU as quoted by the International Swap Dealers' Association on the page ISDA of Reuters. This rate shall be increased by 1.5 % for each month of delay. The increased rate shall be applied to the entire period of delay. However, the interest shall be due only if the contribution is paid more than thirty days after the scheduled payment dates mentioned in para. 2.1 above.
- 2.4 Travel costs incurred by Israeli representatives and experts for the purposes of taking part in the work of the committees referred to in articles 8 and 9 of this Agreement and those involved in the implementation of the Fourth Framework Programme shall be reimbursed by the Commission on the same basis as and in accordance with the procedures currently in force for the representatives and experts of the Member States of the European Community.

This regularization shall occur at the time of the second payment for the year n+1. Further regularizations shall occur every year until July 2002.

Payments by Israel shall be credited to the Community programmes as budget receipts allocated to the appropriate budget heading in the statement of revenue of the general budget of the European Union.

The financial regulation applicable to the general budget of the European Union shall apply to the management of the appropriations.

4. Information

8. Fraud prevention measures

- Each year a number of controls will be carried out in situ (at the research institutes concerned) either by staff from the relevant DG or by auditing companies with which the Commission has concluded framework contracts.
This will include checks on costs.
- Officials responsible for the technical side of the operation will check the scientific and budgetary aspects.

9. Elements of cost-effectiveness analysis

9.1 Specific objectives, target population

- Specific objectives:
The Agreement should enable Israel and the Community to derive mutual benefit from the scientific and technical progress achieved through their reciprocal research programmes, with participation by the Israeli scientific community and industry in Community research programmes and independent and non-subsidized participation in Israeli research activity by bodies established in the Community.
- Beneficiaries in the EU and Israel will be the scientific communities, industry and the population generally, thanks to the direct and indirect impact of cooperation.

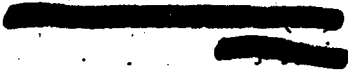

9.2 Grounds for the operation

- Community funding is indispensable as the planned cooperation forms part of the implementation of the framework programme, including the budget section: participation by Israel in the specific programmes and administrative expenditure by the European side (missions by experts and EU officials; organization of seminars in the EC and Israel).
- Budgetary arrangements will be based on the type of cooperation proposed (association of a non-member country in specific programmes of Community research); the arrangements are similar to those used for research programme association agreements between the Community and the EFTA States.
- one general element of uncertainty is the extent to which Israel will actually take part in the specific programmes and how this will affect the budget.

9.3 Monitoring and evaluation of the operation

The cooperation Agreement will be regularly evaluated by the relevant Commission departments and will be subject to one joint Community-Israel evaluation each year. Evaluation will cover:

- (a) Performance indicators:
 - number of proposals put forward by Israel per specific programme compared with the number of proposals selected for funding under the programme;
 - number of proposals put forward by Israel compared with the number of proposals selected for funding under the framework programme;

- number of proposals put forward under the specific programmes of the framework programme compared with the relative share (1%) of Israel's participation in those programmes;
 - number of Israeli proposals selected for funding in the specific programmes of the framework programme compared with its relative participation in those programmes.

(b) Gathering information:

On the basis of data on the specific programmes of the framework programme.

(c) Overall evaluation:

At the end of the 4th framework programme the Commission will evaluate all cooperation activities covered by the Agreement.

(d) Corrections:

Through information to the relevant partners on both sides on practical arrangements for taking part in the specific programmes of the framework programme. The information will be passed on in accordance with the recommendations of the Joint Cooperation Committee.

10. Impact on administrative expenditure

- The Commission is not requesting any additional posts for the management of the Agreement.
- No officials are being specifically assigned to manage the Agreement. It will be managed by the staff authorized for the fourth framework programme.
