REPORT 1997-1998

(Article 9(2))

CONVENTION ON THE CONSERVATION OF EUROPEAN WILDLIFE AND NATURAL HABITATS

Standing Committee

(presented by the Commission)

CONVENTION ON THE CONSERVATION OF EUROPEAN WILDLIFE AND NATURAL HABITATS

Standing Committee

REPORT 1997-1998

(Article 9(2))

Report presented by the delegation of the European Community

THIS REPORT RELATES TO THE YEARS: 1997-1998 and 1995-1996 (additional information)

CONTRACTING PARTY: European Community

General comments on the Convention and its implementation

Directive 79/409/EEC on the conservation of wild birds and Directive 92/43/EEC on the conservation of natural habitats and of wild fauna and flora, constitute the framework within which the provisions of the Bern Convention are applied.

Derogations

The information on the authorities empowered to authorise derogations from Article 6 (Species in Appendices I and II to the Convention) and the derogations regarding the methods of capture and killing listed in Appendix IV is set out below, in keeping with the specifications of document T - PVS(99)25 of the Standing Committee of the Convention.

This document does not mention certain practices which are currently the subject of a dispute between the Commission and certain Member States, including infringements of Directives 79/409/EEC and 92/43/EEC, nor those undertaken for research purposes (in particular ringing birds and marking bats) or for the conservation of species, save when the latter type of derogation leads to the definitive removal of a significant number of individuals (ten or more) from their natural habitat.

It is based on information supplied by the Member States. The reports on derogations concerning birds (Directive 79/409/EEC) for the year 1997 have been received from 14 out of 15 Member States; reports for the year 1998 have been received from 12 Member States.<sup>1</sup> With regard to derogations concerning other species (Directive 92/43/EEC), this report supplements the 1995-1996 biennial report in the case of 8 additional Member States whose reports were received in the interim.<sup>2</sup> Reports for the period 1997-1998 have been received from 12 Member States.<sup>3</sup>

Information on the nature of the risk and details of when and where derogations were granted, as well as on the controls carried out, can be found in the reports of the Member States transmitted under Article 9 of Directive 79/409/EEC or Article 16 of Directive 92/43/EEC.

For information concerning imports and exports, see "Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora, EEC Annual Report 1997 to CITES" and "Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora, EEC Annual Report 1998 to CITES".

<sup>1</sup> Ireland did not supply a report for either 1997 or 1998; no report for 1998 was received from Greece or Denmark; and Belgium's report for 1998 was incomplete (covering only the Flemish region).

<sup>3</sup> No reports have been received from Ireland, the Netherlands or Sweden; the reports provided by Belgium and Austria were incomplete.

AUTHORITIES EMPOWERED TO AUTHORISE DEROGATIONS

The following authorities are empowered to decide whether the conditions referred to in Article 9 of Directive 79/409/EEC and Article 16 of Directive 92/43/EEC have been met and what means, arrangements or methods may be used, within what limits and by what persons:

3. KEY TO DEROGATIONS FOR STRICTLY PROTECTED SPECIES
(APPENDIX II)

AUTHORISED ACTIONS - DEROGATIONS

- a) deliberate killing
- b) deliberate damage to or destruction of breeding or resting sites
- c) deliberate capture and keeping
- d) deliberate disturbance of wild fauna
- e) deliberate destruction or taking of eggs
- f) possession of and internal trade in these animals

REASONS

- i) for the protection of flora and fauna
- ii) to prevent serious damage to crops, livestock, forests, fisheries, water and other forms of property
- iii) in the interests of public health and safety, air safety or other overriding public interests
- iv) for the purposes of research and education, of repopulation, of reintroduction and for breeding
- v) to permit, under strictly supervised conditions, on a selective basis and to a limited extent, the taking, keeping or other judicious exploitation of certain wild animals and plants in small numbers
- vi) falconry

5. KEY TO DEROGATIONS CONCERNING METHODS OF CAPTURE AND KILLING LISTED IN APPENDIX IV

POSSIBLE REASONS

- I For the protection of flora and fauna
- II To prevent serious damage to crops, livestock, forests, fisheries, water and other forms of property
- III In the interests of public health and safety, air safety or other overriding public interests
- IV For the purposes of research and education, of repopulation, of re-introduction and for breeding
- V To permit, under strictly supervised conditions, on a selective basis and to a limited extent, the taking, keeping or other judicious exploitation of certain wild animals and plants in small numbers.

METHOD USED

- 1. Snares
- 2. Live animals used as decoys, which are blinded or mutilated
- 3. Tape recorders
- 4. Electrical devices capable of killing or stunning
- 5. Artificial light sources
- 6. Mirrors and other dazzling devices
- 7. Devices for illuminating targets
- 8. Sighting devices for night shooting comprising an electronic image magnifier or image converter
- 9. Explosives
- 10. Nets
- 11. Traps
- 12. Poison and poisoned or anaesthetic bait
- 13. Gassing and smoking out
- 14. Semi-automatic or automatic weapons with a magazine capable of holding more than two rounds of ammunition
- 15. Aircraft

16. Motor vehicles in motion
17. Limes
18. Hooks
