EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Directorate General for Parliamentary
Documentation and Information

In addition to the official acts published in the Official Gazette of the European Communities, the activities of the European Communities are reported on in publications appearing at regular intervals.

Thus, the Commission of the European Communities publishes a Monthly Bulletin on the activities of the Communities while the European Parliament issues a periodical Information Bulletin on its own activities.

The Council of Ministers issues a press release after all its sessions. Its activities are also reported on in a special section of the Bulletin of the European Communities.

The Economic and Social Committee issues press releases at the close of its plenary sessions, and its overall activities are reported on in a Quarterly Information Bulletin.

The Survey of European Documentation is intended to serve as a supplement to the above publications. It deals with salient features of the process of European integration taking place outside Community bodies.

PREFACE

A Guide to Documentation on the European Parliament was published in the Monthly Bulletin of European Documentation (Special Issue) No. 8, August 1965. Part I of Special Issue II contains a bibliography listing further major publications. This bibliography supplements the list contained in the first special issue. Complete information can therefore be obtained by consulting both special issues.

Part II gives a survey of the Parliament's activities since 1965, in the form of a classified list of reports by the Parliamentary Committees and of debates and resolutions connected therewith.

NOTE

This bibliography has been compiled on the basis of works in the library of the European Parliament and includes a number of unpublished theses of which the library has a copy. Books and papers are listed as shown in the Contents.

Works are given in chronological order in each chapter; these are listed separately at the end of each chapter. Works are mentioned once only under the most appropriate heading.

To avoid terminological confusion, it should be noted that the single Assembly set up by the Treaties establishing the European Communities adopted the style of 'European Parliamentary Assembly' on 20 March 1958, and changed its name to 'European Parliament' on 30 March 1962.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS ON THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENTARY ASSEMBLIES

The following works and articles compare the various parliamentary assemblies in Europe and assess the relative position of the European Parliament.

Books
