Proposal for a COUNCIL DECISION

concerning the Conclusion of the Protocol of Accession of Bolivia
to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade

(presented by the Commission)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. On 10 July 1987 Bolivia declared its intention to accede to the GATT. The Working Party, established to examine the request, submitted to the GATT Council of 21 July 1989 a recommendation to accept the request and a Protocol of Accession, setting out the conditions under which Bolivia accedes to the GATT. The council adopted both texts and consequently opened the voting procedure for Bolivia's accession according to Article XXXIII.
2. During bilateral negotiations with the Community Bolivia agreed to bind its tariff across the board at a ceiling of 40%. This level compares favourably with ceiling bindings in other developing countries such as Mexico and Colombia. In view of Bolivia's commitments under the Cartagena Agreement, Bolivia has the possibility of suspending the 40% ceiling bindings on a limited number of products if it has to implement the Common External Tariff under this Agreement. However, this suspension would be only for three years and if the 40% ceiling binding was not restored Bolivia could be required to undertake negotiations under Article XXVIII:3(a). Bolivia also agreed to grant the Community initial negotiating rights for a number of products that are of export interest to the Community.
3. After obtaining a favourable opinion from the Article 113 Committee, the Commission has agreed to the results of the bilateral trade negotiations with Bolivia in the context of the latter's accession to the GATT.
4. On the 3 August 1989 the necessary two thirds majority of contracting parties was reached in the GATT, all the Member States of the Community having voted in favour. The Protocol is now open for signature by Bolivia, the Contracting Parties and the European Economic Community.

The Protocol should thus be signed on behalf of the Community.
