Proposal for a

COUNCIL DECISION

authorizing certain Member States in accordance with Article 8(4) of Council Directive 92/81/EEC to introduce or continue to apply exemptions from, or reductions in, excise duties on certain mineral oils used for specific purposes

(presented by the Commission)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Under Article 8(4) of Council Directive 92/81/EEC¹ on the harmonization of the structures of excise duties on mineral oils, the Council, acting unanimously on a proposal from the Commission, may authorize any Member State to introduce exemptions from, or reductions in, excise duties on the grounds of specific policy considerations.

The Italian authorities have informed the Commission that they wish to continue applying an exemption from excise duty on mineral oils used as fuel for aluminium production in Sardinia.

The Member States have been informed of this request in accordance with the Directive.

The Directive provides for the Commission to review such exemptions and reductions periodically. If the Commission considers that they may no longer be applied on the grounds that they distort competition or the operation of the internal market or are incompatible with Community policy on protection of the environment, it is to submit appropriate proposals to the Council. In any event, the Commission is to submit areport to the Council on such exemptions and reductions no later than 31 December 1996.

Proposal for a
COUNCIL DECISION

authorizing certain Member States in accordance with Article 8(4) of Council Directive 92/81/EEC to introduce or continue to apply exemptions from, or reductions in, excise duties on certain mineral oils used for specific purposes

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Directive 92/81/EEC of 19 October 1992 on the harmonization of the structures of excise duties on mineral oils, and in particular Article 8(4) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Whereas, under Article 8(4) of Council Directive 92/81/EEC, the Council, acting unanimously on a proposal from the Commission, may authorize any Member State to introduce exemptions from, or reductions in, excise duties on the grounds of specific policy considerations;

Whereas the Italian authorities have informed the Commission that they wish to continue to apply an exemption from excise duty on mineral oils used as fuel for aluminium production in Sardinia;

Whereas the other Member States have been informed of this notification;

Whereas the Commission and all the Member States accept that in order to avoid distortions of competition, Italy should respect the minimum rates of duty on mineral oils as provided for in Community law;

Whereas the Commission regularly reviews reductions and exemptions to monitor their continued compatibility with the proper operation of the internal market or with Community policy on protection of the environment;

Whereas, under Article 8(6) of Council Directive 92/81/EEC, the Council is to review the situation no later than 31 December 1996 on the basis of a report by the Commission,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

In accordance with Article 8(4) of Council Directive 92/81/EEC and without prejudice to the obligations imposed by Council Directive 92/82/EEC of 19 October 1992 on the approximation of the rates of excise duties on mineral oils,² the Italian Republic is hereby authorized to apply reduced rates of excise duty on mineral oils used as fuel for aluminium production in Sardinia until 31 December 1996 provided that such rates at all times respect the minimum rates of duty on mineral oils as provided for in Community law.

Article 2

This Decision is addressed to the Italian Republic.
