

COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

COM(79) 398 final.

Brussels, 17 July 1979

Proposal for a
COUNCIL REGULATION (EEC)
on import arrangements in respect of state-trading countries

(submitted to the Council by the Commission)

COM(79) 398 final.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. The following acts at present lay down the specific import arrangements applied in respect of state-trading countries with regard to products not subject to liberalization at Community level or to import arrangements resulting from international agreements negotiated with those countries:

- (a) Council Decision 75/210/EEC of 27 March 1975¹ on unilateral import arrangements in respect of state-trading countries;
- (b) Council Decision 78/252/EEC of 21 December 1978² amending the import arrangements in respect of state-trading countries;
- (c) the unpublished Council decision of 21 December 1978 on the application of the above Decision in the Federal Republic of Germany, France and the Benelux countries.³

These decisions are also accompanied by 29 statements in the minutes which specify certain aspects of the import arrangements and often constitute real derogations from those decisions, thereby presenting, inter alia, a problem of compatibility with the Community law on which they are based.⁴

2. The complexity of these provisions, the number of acts through which they have been adopted and the fact that some of these acts have not been made public present a number of disadvantages as regards principle and practice, which inevitably hinder the correct interpretation of these provisions and their uniform application by all the Member States and by the various national administrative departments responsible in each Member State for executing these provisions.

³ Doc. I/361/1/78 (COMER 29 rev. 1), 20.12.1978.

⁴ Doc. I/387/77 (COMER 25), 7.12.1977 and doc. S/201/78 (COMER 300), 28.11.1978.

Such a situation is unlikely, moreover, to further transactors' legitimate interest in being fully and accurately informed of their rights and of the extent of the government departments' powers of assessment.

Certain aspects of the present import arrangements, e.g., the absence of the list of products subject to quantitative import restrictions (QR), present certain problems as regards the Community's international undertakings on making the import arrangements public.

Some provisions in the present rules do not seem to correspond any longer to objective requirements, and others have proved inadequate in relation to the common commercial policy objectives to be attained.

3. For these reasons and in order to comply with the wishes to this effect expressed by a number of Member States which are concerned with the problems of applying the present rules, the Commission considers that these rules should be revised, with the following main objectives:

- (a) ensuring maximum transparency of the import arrangements;
- (b) merging into a single regulation the three present decisions, through the rational integration of the various provisions;
- (c) including in the same regulation the content of the statements in the minutes which still have a bearing on the rules. As for the others, the Commission considers it necessary to cut down on the statements, which were perhaps justified in 1975 by an understandably cautious attitude on the part of certain Member States with regard to the new import arrangements but which, after five years' experience, have proved superfluous;

(d) altering certain aspects of the import arrangements in order to:

- i. ensure better economic coordination of the Member States' import arrangements;
- ii. ensure greater consistency between these rules and the other Community rules relating to commercial policy;
- iii. meet the particular requirements of Community commercial policy in respect of the state-trading countries.

4. The regulation proposed by the Commission includes the following main changes to the present situation:

- (a) The products covered will be laid down exhaustively (Article 1) in order to exclude the products already covered by other Community regulations (such as textiles in the case of the state-trading countries that have an agreement with the Community; the products liberalized at Community level in respect of all state-trading countries; agricultural products, with regard to the aspects covered by the CAP, etc.);
- (b) The textile classification will be extended to all the products in Chapters 50 to 63, the list of which was finalized in agreement with the Article 113 Committee - Textiles (Article 1 (2)). This measure is designed to eliminate the current two forms of classification of textiles - by category and by tariff heading. This dual classification creates a number of difficulties, is ill adapted to the requirements of administering the relaxed import arrangements as provided for by the new regulation, and is not consistent with the commercial policy on textiles adopted by the Community;
- (c) On the basis of the procedure currently adopted for the 123 textile categories, an annex to the regulation will indicate all the products for which quantitative restrictions exist in the various Member States (Article 3). This will not only meet the requirement of total transparency of the import arrangements, but it is also necessitated by the fact that the applicability of some of the provisions of the proposed regulation varies according to the number of Member States in which quantitative restrictions exist.

- (d) The regulation will not include an annex giving the lists of quotas but will simply lay down the principle whereby these lists will be compiled each year by an ad hoc act adopted by the Council (Article 3).
- (e) These lists will include all the import quotas, including those relating to outward processing traffic linked with economic cooperation (Federal Republic of Germany) and the standard outward processing traffic (France) at present laid down in an unpublished Council decision.

These quotas, which will continue to be administered in accordance with the rules applicable in the Member States concerned, may, where appropriate, be accompanied by a specification of their particular nature:

non-compulsory opening for certain quotas (outward processing traffic France);
non-applicability of the flexibility rules for others (outward processing traffic + cooperation for the Federal Republic of Germany).

- (f) The quotas covering products the importation of which is in fact subject to open licensing arrangements (Benelux) will be designated "IP" (increase possible), automatically authorizing the Member States concerned to exceed, where necessary, the amount laid down;
- (g) For the products subject to quantitative restrictions in a single Member State,¹ the latter may exceed any existing quotas or authorize imports of products not subject to a quota without observing any limit and without having to initiate a procedure for amending the import arrangements (Article 4 (1)(a)). In such a case, as all the other Member States would have liberalized the product, there would be no problem as regards economic coordination.
- (h) The flexibility measures at present in force (Article 6 (2) and (3) of Decision 75/210 and Article 2 (5) of Decision 79/252), which enable the Member States to exceed, in certain circumstances, by 20% in some cases and 5% in others, the quotas fixed each year by the Council, will be supplemented by the measures which are at present the subject of statements in the minutes. The amount of 35 000 u.a., which at present represents the minimum limit able to be reached in all cases by the above flexibility measures, will, however, be raised to 50 000 u.a. for products subject to quantitative restrictions in at least five Member States (Article 4(1)(b)).

The extension of the flexibility measure limited to 5% of the quota to all products subject to quantitative restrictions in six Member States or more meets the need for a cohesive system, but it has no practical effect since textiles are the only products subject to quantitative restrictions in six regions.

- (i) The ability of the Member States to authorize imports of non-liberalized products not subject to quotas (other than those mentioned under (b)) up to the level of traditional imports will be limited to amounts of 50 000 u.a. Above that amount, a request for prior amendment of the import arrangements will be required (Article 4(1)(b)(ii)). This measure is explained by the need to ensure the economic coordination of imports of products which are in some cases subject to quantitative restrictions in a number of Member States and may be very sensitive for some of these States.

Furthermore, for the abovementioned reasons of transparency of the import arrangements, it is advisable in the interests of both Community importers and the exporting countries for import quotas to be laid down in respect of all products which are truly traditional imports when the general quota arrangements are adopted at the end of the year.

- (j) The flexibility measures adopted by the Member States are to be communicated to the Commission twice yearly, and no longer case by case (Article 4(3)).
- (k) In order to make the system clear, an article in the regulation (Article 6) will state expressly that products not listed in the annex indicating the quantitative restrictions will not be subject to any quantitative restriction upon importation (this provision exists at present for the 123 categories of textiles).
- (l) The Commission may, like the Member States, propose amendments to the import arrangements (Article 7 (1)). This measure is not in fact an innovation in relation to the practice followed in applying Decision 75/210, but simply formalizes a current practice which has proved very useful. This may also enable measures recommended by the Joint Committees to be applied with non-member countries, without each Member State concerned needing to initiate individually the Community procedure for amending the import arrangement.

At the present stage of our agreement-based relations with the state-trading countries, such a case may arise only once or twice a year; at some time in the future these cases may be expected to become more numerous and to recur regularly every year. A simple and rapid way of dealing with them must therefore be found.

The following should, however, be noted:

- i. the Consultation Committee will be consulted before any initiative is taken by the Commission;
- ii. all the rules and procedures at present provided for will be applicable in such a case;
- iii. the Commission cannot adopt measures without the agreement of the Member States directly concerned.

(m) The obligation to put before the Council any amendment to the import arrangements as soon as Community negotiations with a state-trading country are authorized will be abolished; in all such cases the general rule will be applied. The present procedure slows down considerably - for no reason - the process of amending the import arrangements, as has been seen recently.

(n) The tasks of the Consultation Committee will be more clearly defined in order to take into account the positive experience acquired during the five years of its activity and also the new requirements deriving from the existence of the Community's agreement-based relations with state-trading countries.

5. The Commission therefore proposes that the Council:

- i. adopt the regulation the proposal for which is set out in the annex;
- ii. decide to publish it in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

Consultation of the European Parliament is optional.

Proposal for a
COUNCIL REGULATION (EEC)
on import arrangements in respect of state-trading countries

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Article 113 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Whereas pursuant to the Treaty the Community must complete the establishment of a common commercial policy in respect of state-trading countries; whereas to this end common arrangements should be made for the import of the products of these countries into the Community;

Whereas provisions should accordingly be adopted concerning the arrangements for imports into the Member States in respect of these countries;

Whereas in its Decision 75/210/EEC on unilateral import arrangements in respect of state-trading countries¹, as last amended by Decision 79/252/EEC², the Council adopted certain provisions relating to the establishment of quantitative import quotas and to the amendment of the import arrangements in the Member States;

Whereas the above Decisions should be brought together in a single instrument and at the same time the improvements suggested by experience should be effected, with a view to rendering the import arrangements more transparent and simplifying the procedure for this amendment;

Whereas provision should be made for Community consultations on the establishment of common import arrangements in respect of state-trading countries and on the application of trade agreements between the Community and these countries, and for the exchange of views and information on relations with these countries;

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

TITLE I

Products Covered

Article 1

1. This Regulation shall apply to imports of products originating in the state-trading countries listed in Annex I, with the exception of:
 - products covered by Regulation (EEC) No 925/79 establishing common rules for imports from state-trading countries;¹
 - products covered by Regulation (EEC) No 2532/78 on common rules for imports from the People's Republic of China;²
 - products covered by Regulation (EEC) No 3059/78 on common rules for the import of certain textile products from third countries³, as regards the state-trading countries to which that Regulation applies;
 - products imported under the conditions laid down in the Brussels Customs Convention of 8 June 1961 concerning facilities for the importation of goods for display or use at exhibitions, fairs, meetings or similar events.

2. In the case of products subject to rules under the common organization of an agricultural market or to specific rules laid down by virtue of Article 235 of the Treaty in respect of goods resulting from the processing of agricultural products, this Regulation shall apply by way of complement to those rules in so far as they still allow Member States to impose quantitative import restrictions.

3. For the purposes of this Regulation, textile products falling within Chapters 50 to 63 of the Common Customs Tariff shall be classified in categories as set out in Annex II.

4. For purposes of this Regulation, the Benelux countries shall be regarded as constituting a single Member State.

TITLE II

Products subject to quantitative import restrictions

Article 2

1. The importation for free circulation of the products listed in Annex III originating in state-trading countries shall be subject to quantitative restrictions in the Member States indicated in that Annex in respect of the products in question.
2. For the purposes of this Regulation, the requirement of an import licence under an open licensing system shall not be considered a quantitative restriction.
3. The putting into free circulation of the products referred to in paragraph 1 shall be subject to production of an import authorization or equivalent document issued by the competent authorities in the Member States concerned, within limits to be defined in accordance with Article 3 or as laid down in Article 4.

Article 3

1. Before 1 December of each year the Council shall, in accordance with Article 113 of the Treaty, lay down the import quotas to be opened by the Member States for the following year in respect of the various state-trading countries for the products referred to in Article 2 (1).
2. If no Council decision has been adopted by that date, the existing import quotas shall be extended on a provisional basis for the following year. Any amendments made exceptionally during the year and expressly valid for that year only shall not be covered by such extension.

In such cases, the Council shall adopt before 1 March of the new year, pursuant to Article 113 of the Treaty, any necessary amendments to the import quotas thus extended.

3. The Member States shall notify the Commission, immediately upon adoption, of the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of the acts whereby they are to open at national level the import quotas fixed in accordance with this Regulation,

Article 4

1. In administering the import arrangements resulting from Articles 2 and 3, the Member States may, subject to paragraph 2, apply the following measures without having to initiate the amendment procedure provided for in Article 7:

(a) products subject to quantitative import restrictions in a single Member State:

In the light of the economic requirements of the market, the Member State concerned may:

- (i) for products subject to quotas, exceed the amount of the quotas;
- (ii) for products subject to restrictions other than quotas, open import facilities.

(b) products subject to quantitative restrictions in more than one Member State:

In an emergency, and if the economic requirements of the market make this necessary, the Member States concerned may:

- (i) after a quota has been used up for a product subject to quotas, open, in respect of the third country to which this quota applies, additional import facilities within the following annual limits:

- 5% of the quota or 35 000 units of account, whichever is the greater, for products subject to quantitative restrictions in six or more Member States, with the exception of products falling within textile categories 1 to 8, 12, 15B and 16;
- 20% of the quota or 50 000 units of account, whichever is the greater, for products subject to quantitative restrictions in five or fewer Member States.

- (ii) for products subject to restrictions other than quotas, open import facilities for a specified third country within the following annual limits:

- 35 000 units of account for products falling within textile categories 1 to 8, 12, 15B and 16;
- 50 000 units of account for other products.

2. Paragraph 1 shall cease to apply in respect of a state-trading country from the time when the opening of Community negotiations with that country has been authorized until the implementation of the agreement negotiated.
3. The Member States shall, every six months, inform the Commission, which will in turn inform the Consultation Committee provided for in Article 11, hereinafter referred to as "the Committee", of the measures adopted in accordance with paragraph 1. Such information shall be supplied concerning the measures provided for in paragraph 1 (b) if the limits of 5% and 20% laid down in the said subparagraph are reached.
4. At the request of a Member State or of the Commission, consultations shall be held retrospectively, in accordance with Article 8, to deal with measures taken by the Member States pursuant to paragraph 1.

Article 5

Products imported into the customs territory of the Community under inward processing or other temporary admission arrangements and declared as being intended for re-export with or without further processing shall not be charged against the quotas or other import facilities opened in accordance with Article 4 (1).

TITLE III

Liberalized products

Article 6

The importation into the Member States of products not subject to the import arrangements provided for in Article 2 shall not be liable to any quantitative restriction.

Title IV

Amendment of the import arrangements

Article 7

1. Where a Member State considers that the import arrangements laid down in accordance with Articles 2 and 3 should be amended, it shall inform the other Member States and the Commission thereof, specifying, inter alia, whether the proposed amendment is to be of an exceptional nature.

If the Commission considers that the said import arrangements should be amended, it shall put the matter before the Committee and submit to it a draft of the measures to be taken.

2. Amendments to the import arrangements shall be adopted in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 9.

Article 8

1. The measures proposed by the Commission, and, if a Member State or the Commission so requests, those proposed by the Member States, shall be the subject of prior consultation within the Committee, in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 9.
2. The purpose of the consultation shall be to ascertain the effect of the proposed measures on the establishment of common import arrangements and on the proper functioning of the common market.
3. The Committee shall take into account in particular the situation in the relevant sector of the economy and, where appropriate, the volume of traditional imports and also the various economic aspects of the operations in connexion with which the imports are contemplated, including the implications of these operations for industrial policy.

Article 9

1. With regard to the measures envisaged by a Member State, if the Commission does not request consultation within five working days of receiving the information provided for in Article 7(1) and has received no request for consultation from any of the Member States by the end of that period, it shall take a decision on the proposed measure forthwith.
2. Where consultation is requested in accordance with Article 8(1), it shall commence within five working days of the end of the period of five days provided for in paragraph 1.
3. If, after consultation, no objection has been raised by a Member State or by the Commission, the latter shall take a decision on the proposed measure forthwith.

In all other cases:

- if the objection is formulated by the Commission or by the Member State directly concerned by the proposed measure, the Commission shall submit a proposal to the Council, in accordance with Article 113 of the Treaty, concerning the measures to be taken;
- if the objection is formulated by a Member State not directly concerned by the proposed measure, the Commission may either take a decision on the proposed measure or submit to the Council, in accordance with Article 113 of the Treaty, a proposal concerning the measures to be taken.

The Commission shall put the matter before the Council not more than twenty working days from the date of commencement of the consultation procedure.

4. The Commission's decisions shall be communicated forthwith to the Member State concerned.

5. Subject to Article 10, the proposed measures may not be applied by the Member States until after their adoption by the Commission, or by the Council if the matter has been put before the latter.
6. The amendments made to the import arrangements in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 3 shall be published from time to time by the Commission in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

Article 10

In a particularly urgent case, measures to restrict import facilities by:

- withdrawing liberalisation of one or more products;
- abolishing or reducing a quota

may be applied by way of interim measure by the Member States, following the submission of the request for amendment provided for in Article 7, but without awaiting any consultation requested under Article 8.

If a quota is left entirely unopened on 30 November, this shall constitute a reduction of the quota within the meaning of the first paragraph.

TITLE V

Consultation Committee

Article 11

1. There is hereby established a Consultation Committee consisting of representatives of the Member States and chaired by a representative of the Commission.
2. Matters shall be put before the Consultation Committee by its Chairman at his initiative or at the request of a representative of a Member State.

Article 12

Without prejudice to the consultations provided for in Articles 8 and 9, the Committee may:

- hold exchanges of views on any matter liable to contribute to the establishment of common import arrangements in respect of state-trading countries
- examine any questions arising from the application of trade agreements concluded between the Community and state-trading countries;
- hold exchanges of views and information on relations with state-trading countries.

TITLE VI

Final Provisions

Article 13

Council Decisions 75/210/EEC and 79/252/EEC are hereby repealed.

Article 14

This Regulation shall enter into force on 1 January 1980.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.
