BRITISH "RENEGOTIATION" PACKAGE ON THE TABLE

The Community's Foreign Ministers meet in Luxembourg on Tuesday, June 4, where they will hear the British Government's presentation on the terms to be sought in the "renegotiation" process. Mr. James Callaghan will be putting the British case.

The Agricultural Council of Ministers is meeting on the same day. Its immediate concern will be discussion of the Italian import control measures and their effect on agricultural trade.

Later in the week on Thursday, June 6, Economic and Finance Ministers and Education Ministers will have a meeting. Throughout June all Council meetings are held in Luxembourg.

President Giscard d'Estaing and the new Chancellor of the Federal German Republic, Herr Schmidt, will be meeting in Paris this week-end.
