FLASHBACK

European Foreign Ministers meeting in Brussels on September 20 formally approved direct elections to the European Parliament. It is hoped that these will take place in the summer of 1978. Great Britain will have 81 seats.

The Portuguese Foreign Minister Sr. Jose Medeiro Fereira at a meeting of the European Foreign Ministers expressed his Government's desire to move rapidly towards full membership of the European Community.

Mr. Callaghan in talks with the TUC has promised to raise the question of Japanese imports with Britain's partners.

The Commission's proposals on fishing policy were announced on September 23. They provide for a 200-mile limit for the Community, a policy of conservation stocks and special preference for coastal areas of Northern Britain and Ireland.
