TOP EC FOREIGN AFFAIRS OFFICIALS TO TAKE PART IN MIDEAST DONOR CONFERENCE

Belgian Foreign Affairs Minister Willy Claes and EC Commissioner for External Political Relations Hans van den Broek will be in Washington October 1 to participate in the international donor conference called by the Clinton Administration in support of the Middle East peace process.

Mr. Claes is President of the EC Council of Ministers since Belgium assumed the six-month EC Council Presidency on July 1. Both men come to Washington from New York where they are attending the 48th United Nations General Assembly.

From 2 pm-3 pm on October 1, Mr. Claes and Mr. van den Broek will participate in a general press conference in the Dean Acheson Auditorium of the State Department. Press accreditation will be necessary for admission.

The EC Commission proposed today a special aid package for the Occupied Territories of the West Bank and Gaza totalling 500 million ECU* (not including EC member state monies) to be disbursed over five years (1994-98), half in grants from the EC budget and half in long-term loans from the European Investment Bank. The EC is also proposing an extension and upgrading of the 1975 EC-Israel trade and cooperation agreement. Another proposal encourages further cooperation between all the partners in the Middle East as well as upgrading the Community dialogue with each of the countries in the region.

Debate in the European Parliament on September 14 revealed overwhelmingly a willingness to support the Palestinians in their steps towards a new administration.

In response to the September 13 signing of the peace accord by Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization at the White House, the EC Council of Ministers immediately decided to increase the EC's 1993 aid allocation for the Occupied Territories from 70 million ECU to 90 million ECU. The EC has been a substantial actor in the Middle East in the way of aid and trade.

For more information on the Community's proposals and role in the Middle East see EC News No. 45/93.
