

No. 19/1979

June 12, 1979

NEW APPOINTMENT

David Haworth, former Common Market and Nato correspondent for the International Herald Tribune (Paris) and The Observer (London) has joined the European Communities Delegation in Washington.

He is designated Head of Media and will be responsible for providing information to newspapers, magazines, radio and television.

Mr. Haworth, 38, was an industrial reporter before spending six years as a foreign correspondent in Brussels (1971-1977). Through 1978 he was a visiting fellow at the University of Missouri Journalism School.