Doc. 1-386/79

on/emergency aid to Vietnam and Kampuchea

PE 60.672

The European Parliament,

- dismayed at the growing exodus of refugees from Kampuchea to neighbouring South-East Asian states,
  - convinced that a major debate on world hunger would be meaningless unless specific measures are taken to assist people in real need,
1. Instructs the Commission to place 1 million EUA at the disposal of the Red Cross in Geneva to be used for 'emergency aid for Kampuchean refugees': these funds should be used to provide people in distress, in particular women, children and the aged, with the necessary food and medical supplies to ensure their survival; these funds may also be used to improve the facilities in refugee camps; the aid measures should be implemented exclusively by the Red Cross in collaboration with official bodies in Thailand;
  2. Recommends that the necessary appropriations be transferred from Article 590 to Article 950 of the 1979 budget, and approves this transfer of appropriations;
  3. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the Commission, the Council and the Governments of the Member States.
