on the Nobel peace prize for Chilean and Polish trade-union leaders

LAPSED

PE 85.533
Or. De.

The European Parliament,

- A. in the knowledge that free association is an inalienable human right,
  - B. recognizing that this right to free trade unions is an essential condition for peace, freedom and social justice,
  - C. condemning the non-observance of these freedoms in Chile and Poland,
  - D. convinced that the trade union leaders Lech Walesa and Rudolfo Segué1 are fighting courageously and at great personal risk for these rights and for peace and freedom in their countries using peaceful means,
1. Proposes to the Nobel peace prize committee that it award the Nobel peace prize jointly to Rudolfo Segué1 and Lech Walesa;
  2. Asks the national parliaments of the Community Member States to endorse this proposal;
  3. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the Nobel peace prize committee and the presidents of the national parliaments of the Community Member States.
