DOCUMENT 1-15/83

MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

tabled by Mr Kai Uwe von HASSEL and others

for entry in the register pursuant to Rule 49
of the Rules of Procedure

on the consequences to be drawn from the European Parliament's adoption, on 7 July 1981, of the Zagari Report

The European Parliament,

- A. having regard to its experience in the course of nearly three years as regards its place of work,
 - B. having regard to the decisions taken on 7 July 1981 on the basis of the Zagari Report,
 - C. whereas it is entitled to take, as regards the organization of its work, all necessary decisions that do not require the participation or approval of the Council of Ministers,
 - D. whereas, in implementation of the decisions of 7 July 1981, all part-sessions will be held in Strasbourg, an official place of work of the European Parliament,
 - E. whereas the meetings of the committees and political groups will normally be held in Brussels,
 - F. whereas Luxembourg is dedicated to remaining the seat of the judicial and financial institutions,
1. Has decided:
- (a) to draw, in the 1983 budget and in subsequent budgets, the consequences of the decisions of 7 July 1981;
 - (b) to proceed to divide up staff of the general secretariat in the most rational manner between the places of work
 - by arranging for services that are mainly concerned with the functioning of part-sessions to be based permanently in the place where Parliament holds its sessions, namely Strasbourg,
 - by arranging for services that are mainly concerned with the functioning of the committees to be based in Brussels;

- (c) to take account in future of this division of staff when recruiting new staff;
 - (d) to take account of the legitimate interests of staff by applying as broadly as possible the principle of voluntary transfer and by fully involving staff representatives in working out the measures to be taken in implementation of this resolution;
2. Requests the Bureau to institute within the administration structural changes that will permit greater flexibility in the work rate, for instance where the rapid organization of special part-sessions is concerned;
 3. Calls on the Secretary-General to prepare without delay the reorganization measures required by this resolution.
