VARIATIONS IN THE PARITIES OF THE CURRENCIES OF THE MEMBER STATES

PE 79.264

The European Parliament,

- A. whereas the European Monetary System should have favoured a more decisive process of convergence for the economies of the Member States,
- B. whereas excessively frequent adjustments (three in one year) of official parities jeopardizes the operation of this system,
- C. in view of the consequences which the realignment of currencies has on the agri-monetary sector,
- D. deeply disturbed by the uncertainties and delays in the strengthening of the system and the transition to the second stage of EMS,
 - 1. Stresses the urgency of an effective policy to bring about convergence of the economies;
 - 2. Asks that the European Monetary System be strengthened as regards its operation and by improving the relationship between the internal policies of the Member States;
 - 3. Sees a need for the removal at an early date, and at the latest by the beginning of the new marketing year, of the monetary compensatory amounts introduced as a result of the change in parities;
 - 4. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the Council and Commission.
