

Antonio Saggio
Curriculum vitae

Born in 1934; in 1957 graduated with a first class degree from the University of Naples with a thesis on international law meriting publication.

Activities as member of the Italian judiciary

In 1960 appointed junior magistrate (uditore giudiziario). Served as district court judge (pretore and giudice di tribunale) in various fora.

In 1973 appointed Appeal Court judge (Corte di appello) and in 1980 judge of the Court of Cassation (Corte di cassazione).

1984 to 1988: Adviser (Consigliere) at the Rome Court of Appeal, first civil chamber. 1985 entered Research Department of the Constitutional Court (Corte costituzionale).

1988 to 1989: Adviser at the Court of Cassation, first civil chamber. 1989 qualified for high executive office in the Court of Cassation.

Activities as government expert

1974 to 1978: worked in the legislation department (Ufficio legislativo) of the Ministry of Justice mainly covering economic law; in this capacity he helped in the preparation of national legislation, sat as the Italian delegate on European Community working parties (especially those dealing with company law) and represented Italy in international negotiations.

1985 to 1988: as Permanent Chairman of an ad hoc EC Council working party, negotiated with the countries of the European Free Trade Association a Convention parallel to the Brussels Convention on Jurisdiction and the Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters. In 1988, as coordinator and spokesman of the Community Member States and Chairman of the General Committee, took part in the diplomatic conference in Lugano which adopted that Convention.

Activities as member of the Community judiciary

1979 to 1984: Law Clerk to the Italian Advocate-General of the Court of Justice of the European Communities.

Since 1989 member of the Court of First Instance of the European Communities, a court with jurisdiction to hear and determine, in particular, actions relating to anti-competitive practices on a European scale. For two years (1989-1990 and 1990-1991) Chamber President. Member of the restricted working party charged with drawing up the Court's draft rules of procedure.

Since 19 September 1995 President of the Court of First Instance following election to that office by his peers. In that capacity he heads the Court's administration, presides over the First Chamber and the Court sitting in plenary and has exclusive powers to adopt emergency measures, virtually all in the field of competition law.

Academic activities

1968 to 1972: assistant professorship in the law of international organizations at Naples University.

1985 to 1989: Professor of Community law at Civil Service College (Scuola superiore della pubblica amministrazione) in Rome.

Rapporteur at law conferences, mainly for Community law topics.

Author of numerous books and articles on constitutional law, public and private international law and especially on Community law. These publications are listed in the Annex.