CONSOLIDATION OF COMMUNITY LAW

The Council discussed the question of the consolidation of Community law. It heard a statement from the Commission on the work carried out on the matter since 1974 and the Commission's intention of submitting proposals on the matter to the Council. Following its exchange of views the Council adopted the following statement:

"The Council of the European Communities,

- recalling the resolution on the consolidation of Community law made by the Council at its 315th meeting on 26 November 1974 as well as the statement on consolidation made by the Council at its 537th meeting on 9 October 1978;
- noting the statement of the Commission on the state of progress achieved since 1978, and its intentions in respect of the work to be carried out in the future, in the field of consolidation of Community law,
- reconfirming the importance it attaches to the consolidation of Community law in order to improve its accessibility,
- noting that legislative consolidation presents advantages as compared with the publication of co-ordinated versions intended merely for information,
- urges the Commission to intensify its work to submit proposals on consolidated texts,
- reconfirms its undertaking to examine those proposals as quickly as possible without bringing into question the substance of the texts."

PROTOCOL ON THE INTERPRETATION BY THE COURT OF JUSTICE OF THE ROME
CONVENTION ON THE LAW APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

When, at a Council meeting of Ministers of Justice held in Rome on 19 June 1980, the Rome Convention on the law applicable to contractual obligations was opened for signature the representatives of the Governments of the Member States adopted a joint declaration annexed to the Rome Convention according to which the Governments declared themselves ready to examine the possibility of conferring jurisdiction for the interpretation of the Convention on the Court of Justice of the European Communities and, if necessary, to negotiate an agreement to this effect.

The Ministers of Justice examined the possibility of drawing up such an agreement on the basis of a proposal whereby certain powers would be conferred on the Court. Some progress was made in the discussions and the Ministers of Justice decided to ask the Permanent Representatives Committee to continue their efforts to reach agreement, account being taken of the proposals made at the meeting of the Ministers of Justice.

EXTENSION OF THE CONVENTION ON JURISDICTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS IN CIVIL AND COMMERCIAL MATTERS

The Representatives of the Governments of the Member States meeting within the Council signed the Convention on the accession of the Hellenic Republic to the 1968 Convention on Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters and to the 1971 Protocol on its interpretation by the Court of Justice with the adjustments made to them by the 1978 Convention on the Accession of the Kingdom of Denmark, of Ireland and of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

It will be remembered that in accordance with Article 3(2) of the Act concerning the accession of the Hellenic Republic to the European Communities, Greece undertook to accede to the Brussels Convention on jurisdiction and the enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters, concluded under Article 220 of the EEC Treaty, and to the 1971 Protocol on its interpretation by the Court of Justice, and to this end it undertook to enter into negotiations with the other Member States in order to make the necessary adjustments thereto. These negotiations began in December 1981 and culminated in the Accession Convention signed today.

The Brussels Convention, which was concluded in 1968 between the original Member States of the European Community, is in force. It is accompanied by a Protocol on the interpretation of the Convention by the Court of Justice concluded in 1971, which is also in force between the original Member States. Denmark, Ireland and the United Kingdom acceded to the Convention and the Protocol by a Convention of 1978 which is in the process of being ratified; an exchange of information among the Ministers of Justice showed that prospects were good for an early entry into force of that Convention.

The aim of the 1968 Convention is to simplify the necessary formalities for the mutual recognition and enforcement of judgments. To this end the Convention lays down in the first place the rules of jurisdiction as regards the tribunal to which civil and commercial matters should be referred.

It then lays down a procedure which is simplified, as compared with traditional rules, and rapid, because it is not adversary in the initial stage, for the enforcement of judgments delivered in another Member State.

However, in the event of non-enforcement or substantive opposition by the party against whom enforcement is sought, more structured proceedings intended to offer maximum guarantees and thus of an adversary nature are provided for.

The Brussels Convention and the Protocol have both acquired considerable practical importance: hundreds of judgments based on the Convention have been delivered in the Member States and a series of judgments by the Court has settled fundamental questions of its interpretation.

The accession of Greece to the 1968 Convention and to the 1971 Protocol will achieve the enlargement of the Community in an important field for the citizen and the exercise of his rights.

ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL FOR DISPUTES BETWEEN THE INSTITUTIONS AND THEIR STAFF

The Council held an exchange of views on the establishment of a body of first instance to deal with disputes between the Community institutions and their staff, the main function of which will be to lighten the workload of the Court of Justice in this type of dispute.

At its meeting on 26 November 1974, the Council of Ministers of Justice agreed in principle that it would be desirable to create a Court of first instance which would rule on disputes between the Institutions and their staff and invited the Commission to submit appropriate proposals or drafts.

The Commission presented a proposal for a Regulation on the matter on 4 August 1978.

The Council today examined this proposal and, in view of the difficulties encountered, a proposal from the Presidency to set up an administrative appeal board which would give binding decisions under the supervision of the Court of Justice. The Council referred the Presidency's proposal to the Permanent Representatives Committee for further examination, in particular of its financial implications, and to enable the opinion of the staff representatives to be obtained.

RATIFICATION OF THE LUXEMBOURG CONVENTION ON THE COMMUNITY PATENT

Having heard a Commission statement on the ratification of the Luxembourg Convention on the Community patent, the Ministers of Justice held an exchange of information on the progress procedures for ratifying this Convention in the Community Member States.

PROPOSAL FOR A BANKRUPTCY CONVENTION

The Ministers of Justice noted a Commission statement on the proposal for a Bankruptcy Convention.

CONSEIL/CONFERENCE DES MINISTRES DE LA JUSTICE (O. VON SCHWERIN)

Le Ministre français de la Justice, M. Badinter, a présenté ses propositions visant à renforcer la coopération en matière judiciaire au sein de la Communauté afin notamment de combattre le terrorisme international.

Dans ce but, il a proposé, d'une part, la révision et l'adaptation des règles concernant l'extradition et, d'autre part, la création d'une Cour pénale européenne qui devrait fonctionner comme instance subsidiaire.

Sans qu'il n'y ait eu de discussions approfondies de ces propositions, certaines délégations se sont montrées assez réservées en se référant aux conventions existantes et notamment l'accord de Dublin, signé par les Neuf en décembre 1979 mais pas encore ratifié par la plupart des pays membres.

M. Narjes a attiré l'attention des Ministres sur la résolution du Parlement européen du 9 juillet 1982 concernant l'espace judiciaire européen qui traite de ce même problème et demande à la Commission d'élaborer des directives concernant des principes communs pour l'extradition des terroristes et l'assistance juridique en matière pénale.

En résumant le débat, la Présidence a demandé aux délégations de réfléchir sur les propositions françaises jusqu'à la prochaine réunion des Ministres de la Justice, qui devrait avoir lieu après un intervalle moins long que jusqu'ici et au maximum après un an.
