

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA: CRISPIN TICKELL
CHEF DE CABINET TO PRESIDENT ROY JENKINS
COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

Born: 25 August 1930

Educated at Westminster School (King's Scholar); and Christ Church, Oxford (Hinchliffe & Hon Scholar); 1st Class Honors Modern History 1952; Gladstone Memorial Exhibitioner 1952 (prize essay on the Irish question).

Served with Coldstream Guards (2nd lieutenant) 1952-54.

Joined Diplomatic Service 1954 and served at

Foreign Office	1954-55
British Embassy, The Hague	1955-58
British Embassy, Mexico	1958-61
Foreign Office (Planning Staff)	1961-64
British Embassy, Paris	1964-70

Foreign and Commonwealth Office:

Private Secretary to successive Chancellors of the Duchy of Lancaster (the Rt Hon George Thomson, the Rt Hon Anthony Barber and the Rt Hon Geoffrey Rippon), Ministers responsible for the negotiations for British entry to the European Community 1970-72.

Head of Western Organizations Department, FCO 1972-75 (hence responsible for NATO matters, European security problems including the CSCE and MBFR, and politico-military affairs generally).

Fellow in the Center for International Affairs, Harvard University, 1975-76.

Chef de Cabinet to the President of the Commission of the European Communities (the Rt Hon Roy Jenkins) from January 1977.

Publications:

Contributor to: The Evacuees, edited by B.S. Johnson, 1968.
EEC Policy towards Eastern Europe, edited by Ieuan G. John, 1975.
Life After Death, edited by Robin Denniston, 1976.

Climatic Change and World Affairs, Harvard University, 1977

Mr. Tickell is married with three children.

September 1978

XII
=

CRISPIN TICKELL

CHEF DE CABINET TO PRESIDENT ROY JENKINS
COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

Crispin Tickell was born in 1930 and educated at Westminster School and Christ Church College, Oxford, where he received a 1st Class Honors Degree in Modern History in 1952.

From 1952 he served as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Coldstream Guards until 1954 when he joined the British Foreign Service, working initially in the London office until 1955 when he was transferred to the British Embassy in the Hague and later to the Embassy in Mexico in 1958.

In 1961 Mr. Tickell was a member of the Planning Staff in the Foreign Office, London, and retained this position until 1964, when he was again transferred abroad, this time to the British Embassy in Paris.

After serving four years in the Paris office, Mr. Tickell became Private Secretary to successive Chancellors of the Duchy of Lancaster (the Rt. Hon. George Thomson, the Rt. Hon. Anthony Barber and the Rt. Hon. Geoffrey Rippon), Ministers responsible for the negotiations for British entry to the European Community, at the British Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

In 1972 he became Head of Western Organizations Department and was responsible for NATO matters, European security problems including the CSCE and MBFR, and politico-military affairs generally.

From 1975 - 1976, Mr. Tickell was a Fellow in the Center for International Affairs, Harvard University, and in 1977 became the Chef de Cabinet to the President of the Commission of the European Communities.

Mr. Tickell has contributed to several publications, among them "The Evacuees", edited by B.S. Johnson in 1968 and "EEC Policy towards Eastern Europe", edited by Ieuan G. John in 1975. He has also published "Climatic Change and World Affairs", Harvard University, 1977.

Mr. Tickell is married and has three children.
