

ANDRE ARTHUR ZIPCY
Director-General
Division D

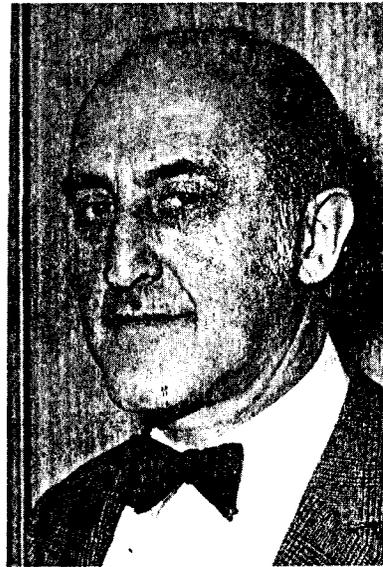

Born December 22, 1913, in Paris, France. Certificated in secondary commercial education. Public accountant certificated by the State. Commissioner of Corporations recognized by the Court of Appeal of Paris.

From 1933 to 1939, attached to the Directorate of the Omnium Français de Pétroles; missions in Tunisia, Algeria, and Morocco. From 1945 to 1953, assistant to the Director, then Associate Director and Director of Finances, of the Inter-Allied Reparation Agency (IARA) and of the Tripartite Commission for Restitution of Monetary Gold at Brussels. From 1953 to 1955, secretary of the Commission of Presidents of the ECSC at Luxembourg. From 1955 to 1958, Director in the Secretariat of the Special Council of Ministers of the ECSC. Since 1958, Director, then Director-General, in the Secretariat of the Council of Ministers of the European Communities. (Division D is concerned with conventional and nuclear energy.)

Chief of battalion of the reserves, qualified as general staff officer.

Chevalier of the Legion of Honor. Croix de Guerre of France and Belgium. Officer of the Order of Military Merit. Silver Medal of the Red Cross of Belgium.

ANDRE ARTHUR ZIPCY
Director-General

Born December 22, 1913, in Paris, France. Certificated in secondary commercial education. Public accountant certificated by the State. Commissioner of Corporations recognized by the Court of Appeal of Paris.

From 1933 to 1939, attached to the Director of the Omnium Français de Pétroles; missions in Tunisia, Algeria, and Morocco. From 1945 to 1953, assistant to the Director, then Associate Director and Director of Finances, of the Inter-Allied Reparation Agency (IARA) and of the Tripartite Commission for Restitution of Monetary Gold at Brussels. From 1953 to 1955, secretary of the Commission of Presidents of the ECSC at Luxembourg. From 1955 to 1958, Director in the Secretariat of the Special Council of Ministers of the ECSC. Since 1958, Director, then Director-General, in the Secretariat of the Council of Ministers of the European Communities.

Chief of battalion of the reserves, qualified as general staff officer.

Chevalier of the Legion of Honor. Croix de Guerre of France and Belgium. Officer of the Order of Military Merit. Silver Medal of the Red Cross of Belgium.

Common Market Reports