

JOSE CARLOS DE CARVALHO
MOITINHO DE ALMEIDA

Formerly Deputy Public Prosecutor at the court of Covilba and at the juvenile court at Lisbon. Judge at Alenquer; Assistant Public Prosecutor in the Court of Appeal in Lisbon; Chief of staff at the Ministry of Justice.

Represented Portugal in the European Committee for Judicial Cooperation of the Council of Europe; member of a committee of experts on family law of the Council of Europe; representative of the Ministry of Justice before the Commission for European Integration; Chairman of the coordinating group in charge of examining derivative Community law. Member of the Committee to Revise the Civil Code (1977). Professor of Community law at the Catholic University of Lisbon and at the Center for Judicial Studies; Head of the Portuguese Section of the International Association of Insurance Law. Immediately prior to appointment at the European Court, served as Assistant Public Prosecutor and Director of Section on European Law.

Author of "The Insurance Contract in Portuguese Law and in Comparative Law," "Unfair Advertising," "Community Law, the Community Judicial Order and the Fundamental Freedoms in the EEC." Also author of various articles in law reviews in the areas of bankruptcy and obligations (civil liability).

Appointed Judge at the Court of Justice of the European Communities on January 1, 1986.

Common Market Reports