

DELEGATION OF THE COMMISSION
OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

Press and Public Affairs

file.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

PASCAL ARNAUD, ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL ADVISOR, DELEGATION OF THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

---

Dr. Pascal Arnaud graduated from the Institute of Political Studies in 1971 and received his Ph.D from the University of Paris I in 1977. He then lectured at the National University of Mexico City as a Visiting Professor and afterwards at the University of Paris I.

Dr. Arnaud joined the Commission of the European Communities in Brussels in 1984. He was Principal Administrator in the Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs, working on international monetary and financial issues. Since April 1990, Pascal Arnaud has been the Economic and Financial Advisor to the Commission of the European Communities Delegation in Washington, D.C.

Dr. Arnaud is the author of several articles and publications about international financial relations and North/South relations.

May 1990