

European Atomic Energy Community

E U R A T O M

The Commission

Monsieur Gerd BRAND, Director in the Department of External
Relations of the Euratom Commission.

- 8 April 1921 Born in Frankfurt-am-Main.
- 1939-1947 Studied political economy and philosophy at the Catholic University of Louvain.
- 1948-1949 Director of the Belgo-Luxembourg-German Chamber of Commerce at Antwerp.
- 1949-1950 Director of the Atwerp External Office of the bizonal administration for food, agriculture, and forestry (the first official German representation after the war).
- 1950 Three months study tour the U.S.A.
- 1950-1951 Course at the German Foreign Affairs Ministry's Preparatory School at Spire.
- 1951-1952 Vice Consul, assistant in the Political Department of the Bonn Foreign Affairs Ministry.
- 1952 Secretary in the Political Department of the Secretariat General of the Council of Europe in Strasbourg.
- 1952-1955 First Executive Assistant of the President of the European Constitutional Commission in Paris. Monsieur Heinrich von Brentano.
- 1955-1957 Second secretary in the political Department of the German Embassy in Washington.
- 1958 First secretary, assistant in the political Department of the Bonn Foreign Affairs Ministry.

-
- Monsieur Brand took a degree in Philosophy, with first-class honours at the Catholic University of Louvain in 1947; and a doctorate of Philosophy of the same University three years later.
 - He has published: "Welt, Ich und Zeit" from hitherto unpublished manuscripts of Edmund Husserls (Martinus Nijhoff, La Haye, 1955).

Received June 1959