

Cearbhall Ó DALAIGH

Born: 12 February 1911

Ó DALAIGH, Hon. Cearbhall; educated Christian Brothers School, Synge Street, Dublin, and University College, Dublin (graduate in Celtic Studies, 1933); Barrister, King's Inns, 1934; Senior Counsel, 1945; Bencher of King's Inns, 1946; Attorney General from April 1946 to February 1948 and from June 1951 to July 1953; Judge of the Supreme Court from July 1953; Chief Justice from 16 December 1961.

Service on Public Bodies:

Since 1952	Member of Cultural Relations Committee of Ireland
Since 1959	Chairman of this Committee
1953 - 1956	Chairman of Committee of Inquiry into taxation of Industry
Since 1953	Chairman of Irish Legal Terms Advisory Committee
1957 - 1962	Chairman of Commission on Income Taxation
1957 - 1958	Chairman of Commission of Inquiry into accommodation needs of Constituent Colleges of the National University of Ireland
1960 - 1967	Chairman of Commission on Higher Education
1.1.73	Judge, European Court of Justice

COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

21 Dec 1972