

Lib

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA: LUCY FALCONE
ACTING ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR POLICY AND DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR DOMESTIC
ECONOMIC POLICY COORDINATION, DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

Ms. Falcone was born in 1946.

Professional Experience: 1977 - present: Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Domestic Economic Policy Coordination: In this role serves as Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy to the Assistant Secretary for Policy and to Secretary of Commerce Kreps. Responsibilities include formulation and review of Administration policies on the budget, taxes, anti-inflation, regulatory reform, economic development employment, macroeconomic policy and business related policy. Served as Department's chief representative in the formulation of 1978 tax legislation and President's anti-inflation program. Serves as Secretary's principal adviser for Economic Policy group, and coordinated Department of Commerce participation in Urban and Regional Policy group.

1976-1977: Adviser to Carter-Mondale transition.

1970-1976: Economist, Joint Economic Committee of Congress.
(Authorized several studies on Effect of Inflation on Consumer).

1969-1970: Economist, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Economic Affairs, Department of Commerce.

Educational Background: 1963: B.A. in Economics and French, Georgetown University

1968-1969: Fulbright Scholar to France University of Strasbourg, Strasbourg, France, School of Law and Economics.

Georgetown Washington University, PhD Candidate in Economics, (Coursework completed).

Member: American Economic Association, National Economicists Club.

Honors and Awards: Fulbright Scholar to France(1968-69); Phi Beta Kappa(67)