

File -
—

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA: PATRICK THOMAS GEARY,
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL ECONOMY,
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, DUBLIN

Patrick Thomas Geary was born in Dublin in 1942.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Present post: Lecturer in Political Economy, University College, Dublin.

1976 - 1977: McMaster University,
Hamilton, Ontario, Canada: Visiting Associate Professor in Department of Economics.

1970 - 1971: Northwestern University,
Evanston, Ill., U.S.A.: Visiting
Assistant Professor in Department of Economics.

1966 - 1970: Lecturer in Economics,
University of Essex.

Currently doing research on the relationship between wages, prices, employment and output in Ireland and eleven other OECD countries.

Published on such topics as inflation in the small open economy, consumer demand in the Economic and Social Review, the European Economic Review and other journals.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND: 1959 - 1963: University College, Dublin. Awarded degrees of B.Comm.,
M.Econ.

1964 - 1966: University of Essex,
Colchester, England: Research
Student.

Mr. Geary is single.