

European Community Information Service
The Farragut Building
Suite 808
Washington, D. C. 20006

Biography

KARL-MARIA HETTLAGE

Member of the High Authority
European Coal and Steel Community

Professor Hettlage was born in 1902 in Essen, Germany. He has been a member of the Coal and Steel Community's High Authority since November, 1962.

After studying law and economics in Cologne and Münster, Mr. Hettlage began his career as a civil servant. He became executive secretary of the financial division of the Federation of German Cities, 1931 to 1934, and treasurer of the City of Berlin, 1935 to 1939.

Mr. Hettlage has been professor of public law at Mainz University since 1952 and honorary professor for credit and fiscal law at Bonn University since 1949. He was director for budgetary affairs in the German Federal Finance Ministry in 1958, and permanent state secretary in the Federal Finance Ministry from 1959 to 1962, when appointed to the High Authority.

###