

Biographical Information
on
Leo Kowalski

Present Position: Principal Administrator in the European Commission's Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, Brussels.
Fellow at the Center for International Affairs, Harvard University (1978/79).

Past Positions: Economist in the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs; Directorate-General for Economic Policy.
Research Fellow at the Institute for Applied Economic Research, University of Tübingen, Germany.

Personal Data: Born: October 7, 1934
Citizenship: Federal Republic of Germany
Family status: Married to Reinhild Klein; 3 children
Address: 32 Brabantlaan, B-1900 Overijse, Belgium.
Temporarily: 56 Linnaean Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02138
Tel: (617) 495-2118 or 498-7840.

Languages: German, French, English

Education: Studied Economics at the Universities in Marburg, Berlin, Aix-en-Provence and Tübingen (Diplom-Volkswirt; Doctor rer. pol.)

Publications: (Partly as co-author) on subjects as regional structure and industrial location in Germany, distribution of income and wealth, and international balance of payments problems after the oil price hike of 1973.

Special subjects of professional activity during the last years: Global medium-term economic prospects and policies of the EC and its member countries; interactions between medium-term economic policy and business cycle, energy and world trade developments. The European Communities dependence of and influence on the world economy.

January 1979