

Library
file K
Bio
Books

HORST GÜNTER KRENZLER

Director-General for External Relations, Commission of the European Communities

Born 26 March 1933 in Wuppertal, Germany.

University Studies:

Studies of law, German literature and political science
Universities of Freiburg (Breisgau), Munich and Bonn, law degree

Ph.D in International Law at University of Heidelberg

Studies at London School of Economics and traineeship at Paris
Chambre de Commerce Internationale

Professional Career:

1963-65 Lawyer, Mannheim

1965 Directorate General for External Relations, Commission of the European Communities, Brussels

Principal activity: Member of Commission's team negotiating the enlargement of the Common Market

1971 Member and Deputy Head of Cabinet of Commissioners Dahrendorf and Brunner

1975 Directorate General for External Relations, Head of Division "Far East"

1977 Directorate General for External Relations, Head of Division "United States/Canada"

1979 Directorate General for External Relations, Director "Negotiation and Management of Textile Agreements, and Commercial Questions in Respect of Industry and Energy"

Jan 1983 Acting Deputy Director-General with additional responsibility for "Relations with State-Trading Countries"

Dec 1983 Deputy Secretary General of the EC Commission

Sept 1987- Director-General for External Relations