

CURRICULUM VITAE

Lilo

John Burke RICHARDSON

Born In Maghull, Lancashire, England, 22.12.1944. Married with three children.

1963-69 : Educated at Downing College, Cambridge and University College, London. Subjects: Natural Sciences (Chemistry) and Economics.

1969-70 : Economics and Statistics Department, Unilever Ltd., London working on the economies of African countries

1970-73 Economics Department, Deutsche Unilever G.m.b.H., Hamburg, working on the German economy and industrial microeconomics.

October 73 Entered European Commission, (Environment and Consumer Protection Service) dealing with economic aspects of environmental policy.

October 78 External aspects of energy policy, petrochemicals trade, and from April 1981 also relations with the Gulf States and the Euro-Arab Dialogue.

September 82 Policy development on international trade in services.

October 87 Head of section, Community external policy on international trade in services, Community negotiator in the Group for Negotiations on Services in the Uruguay Round.

June 1988 In addition to other responsibilities, Secretary of Commission coordinating group on External Aspects of the Internal Market.

March 1989 Head of Unit dealing with relations with the United States

Publications

"International Trade Aspects of Telecommunications Services"
Common Market Law Review, Vol. 23, N° 2, 1986

"A Sub-sectoral Approach to Services' Trade Theory", in "The Emerging Service Economy", Pergamon for Services World Forum, 1987

"Services Negotiations: The Central Issues"
Transnational Data and Communications report, May 1987

"What really happened at Punta del Este: understanding the framework of the Uruguay Round" in "Toward an International Service and Information Economy: A New Challenge for the Third World", ed. Riddle, Friedrich Ebert Foundation, 1987

"Services and Thoughtware : New dimensions in Service Business Development", with L. Edvinsson, forthcoming

