

From Porte Parole (Dorang) 7 Sept. 1961

LUDWIG ROSENBERG

58, Vice-President of the Confederation of German Unions and Chief of the Division of Economic Policy

Born - Berlin

Studied at the Special School of Economics and Administration, Duesseldorf

1928 - 1933 Employed by "Confederation of Employers Unions" at Krefeld, Duesseldorf and Bradenbourg

1933 - 1945 Refuge in England, active in Journalism

1946 - 1949 Member of the Secretariat of Unions in the British Zone and Member of the Council of Unions, Frankfurt

Since 1949 In the Confederation of German Trade Unions holding numerous other offices including Member of the Regional Organization Bureau of the International Federation of Free Trade Unions.

