COM(74) 1480 final

Brussels, 18 September 1974

COMMISSION COMMUNICATION TO THE COUNCIL ON THE RESULTS OF THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH TUNISIA AND MOROCCO WITH A VIEW TO EXTENDING THE ASSOCIATION AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE COMMUNITY AND THOSE TWO COUNTRIES

RECOMMENDATION FOR A COUNCIL REGULATION (EEC)
CONCLUDING AN AGREEMENT EXTENDING THE ASSOCIATION AGREEMENT
BETWEEN THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY AND THE TUNISIAN REPUBLIC

RECOMMENDATION FOR A COUNCIL REGULATION (EEC)
CONCLUDING AN AGREEMENT EXTENDING THE ASSOCIATION AGREEMENT
BETWEEN THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY AND THE KINGDOM OF MOROCCO

(submitted to the Council by the Commission)

COMMISSION COMMUNICATION TO THE COUNCIL ON THE RESULTS OF THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH TUNISIA AND MOROCCO WITH A VIEW TO EXTENDING THE ASSOCIATION AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE COMMUNITY AND THOSE TWO COUNTRIES

In accordance with the directives adopted by the Council at its meeting of 15 and 16 July 1974, a Community Delegation held a joint meeting with Delegations of the Tunisian and Moroccan Governments on 22 July 1974.

The outcome of these negotiations was that the parties were in favour of concluding agreements extending the current Association Agreements until the entry into force of new agreements on broader bases or until 31 August 1975, whichever is the sooner.

In the letters attached, the Tunisian and Moroccan Delegations regretted that it was necessary to resort to such extension and hoped that the Community authorities would do their utmost to expedite the negotiations for the conclusion of new agreements on broader bases and enable them to be concluded as quickly as possible. The Head of the Community Delegation merely acknowledged receipt of these letters.

Also enclosed in annex are the exchanges of letters between the delegations stating that their respective authorities intend to maintain the trade arrangements resulting from the current agreements, on an autonomous basis, pending the official extension of those agreements.

Recommendation for a Council Regulation (EEC)
concluding an agreement extending the Association
Agreement between the European Economic Community

AGREEMENT EXTENDING THE AGREEMENT ESTABLISHING AN ASSOCIATION BETWEEN THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY AND THE TUNISIAN REPUBLIC

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

of the one part; and

THE PRESIDENT OF THE TUNISIAN REPUBLIC, of the other part;

Whereas the Agreement establishing an Association between the European Economic Community and the Tunisian Republic, signed in Tunis on 28 March 1969, expires on 31 August 1974;

Whereas the Parties to this Agreement have made it their aim to negotiate a new agreement on broader bases comprising, in addition to preferential arrangements for trade, other cooperation measures;

Recognizing that it has not been possible to complete the current negotiations within the prescribed time;

Have decided to extend the current Agreement until the entry into force of the new agreement or until 31 August 1975, whichever is the sooner, and to this end have designated as their Plenipotentiaries:

The Council of the European Communities;

The Government of the Tunisian Republic;

Who, having exchanged their Full Powers, found in good and due form,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

The text of Article 14(1) of the Association Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Tunisian Republic shall be replaced by the following:

- " 1. This Agreement shall be applied until the date of entry into force of the new agreement on a broader base or until 31 August 1975, whichever is the sooner."

Article 2

This Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the date on which the Contracting Parties notify each other of the completion of the procedures necessary to that end.

Article 3

This Agreement is drawn up in two copies in the Danish, Dutch, English, French, German, Italian and Arabic languages, each of these texts being authentic.

Exchange of letters between the Head of the Delegation of the Community and the Head of the Delegation of the Government of the Tunisian Republic

Brussels, 22 July 1974

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to inform you that pending the entry into force of the Agreement extending the Agreement establishing an Association between the European Economic Community and the Tunisian Republic, the Council of the European Communities is prepared to take any measures required to maintain, beyond the date of expiry of the said Agreement, the trade arrangements resulting from the Agreement signed in Tunis on 28 March 1969, including the provisions of the Protocol relating to that Agreement which was adopted in view of the accession of new Member States to the Community and those of the exchange of letters relating to the amendment of Article 5 of Annex 1 to the Association Agreement.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurance of my highest consideration.

of the Community

Brussels, 22 July 1974

Sir,

In connection with the negotiation of the Agreement to extend the Association Agreement signed in Tunis on 28 March 1969 between the Government of the Tunisian Republic and the European Economic Community, and on the instructions of my Government, I have the honour to:

- (i) remind you of the terms of Article 14(2) of that Agreement, which provide that "not later than the end of the third year, negotiations may be opened with a view to concluding a new Agreement on a wider basis";
- (ii) express our regret at the need to resort to an extension since it was possible either to open the current negotiations by the date laid down or to make sufficient progress to bring them to a conclusion;
- (iii) ask you to request the Community authorities to do their utmost to expedite the negotiations and to enable the new Agreement to be concluded as quickly as possible, taking into account the points of concern expressed in our memorandum of October 1972.

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both manual and automated processes. The goal is to ensure that the information is both reliable and up-to-date.

The third part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the results. It shows that there has been a significant increase in sales over the period covered. This is attributed to several factors, including improved marketing strategies and better customer service.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations for future actions. These include continuing to invest in marketing, maintaining high standards of customer service, and regularly reviewing financial performance.
