What specific steps does the Council of Ministers propose to take in the immediate future to put into effect the Integrated Mediterranean Programmes proposed by the Commission, the implementation of which would be a particularly timely move for the development of the most backward and disadvantaged regions of the Community?

4.7.83

2. Question by Mr MORELAND (H-289/83) <sup>(x)</sup>

5.7.83

3. Question by Mrs EWING (H-389/83) <sup>(x)</sup>

Question by Mr KALOYANNIS (H-440/83) (x)

Subject : The combating of terrorism in Greece

Approximately three years ago the Greek Parliament, desirous and concerned to prevent and stamp out terrorism, passed a law on terrorism which included provisions and judicial safeguards providing for severe penalties for those convicted of acts of terrorism. Despite the fact that the feeling of security in Greece has recently been shaken and the country is now pervaded by fear and uncertainty as a result of an increase and escalation of acts of terrorism, the perpetrators of which have managed to elude detection by the judicial authorities, the Greek press reports that the Minister of Justice of the Greek Socialist Government is tabling a bill revoking the existing law on terrorism or amending it through the introduction of milder provisions.

In view of this situation and the last three notorious crimes committed in Greece, namely the murder of Mr Georgis Athanasiadis, the editor of the daily 'Vradini' who was dedicated to democracy, the attempted mass murder of New Democracy cadres headed by Mr Paliokrassas, the Secretary-General of the Parliamentary Group, and the bomb attack on foreign diplomats in Psychico, Athens, can the Council of Ministers ask the Greek Government - in view of its concern for a common approach in dealing with the problems of law and order and terrorism - how, given the circumstances described above, the Greek Government can justify the introduction of milder anti-terrorism laws, and duly inform the European Parliament of the outcome?

5. Question by Mr ROGALLA (H-228/83)

Subject: Checks at internal frontiers

Is the Council aware that every day citizens of Community Member States going for walks on the so-called 'green' internal frontiers (between Member States) are being harassed by officials and made to pay hefty fines for technical infringements of obscure and out-dated regulations, and what does the Council propose to do to stop it?

14.6.1983

6. Question by Mr GEROKOSTOPOULOS (H-447/83) (x)

Subject : Compensation for victims of decolonization in line with the resolution adopted by the C.E.S.O.M.

It is a known fact that more than four million Europeans (including Belgian, French, Greek, Italian and Dutch nationals) were victims of decolonization and suffered the consequences of the Second World War.

Their problems and demands have been repeatedly formulated and aired in many different quarters by the organization representing them, the 'EUROPEAN CONFEDERATION OF VICTIMS OF DECOLONIZATION' (C.E.S.O.M.).

On 2 and 3 May 1983 the C.E.S.O.M. organized a meeting in Athens, which adopted a resolution - a copy of which is attached - protesting at the Community's failure to concern itself with their problems.

Does the Council intend addressing itself to the above-mentioned problem - which concerns so many million inhabitants of the Community - and seeking means of solving it?

(x) Former oral question without debate (0-51/83), converted into a question for question time

7. Question by Mr LALOR (H-324/83)

Subject : Pilot EEC transport and programme

Will the Council give due reason why at its meeting of Transport Ministers in Luxembourg on 7 June 1983 it failed to reach a decision to implement the proposal to provide vital aid worth £ 700,000 and £ 2.2 million for two road schemes in Ireland, namely the Wexford Ring road and the Dublin Airport link road?

9.8.1983

8. Question by Mr SEELER (H-448/83) (x)

Subject : Extension of EEC sanctions against the Soviet Union

In its answer to my Written Question No. 2020/82<sup>1</sup> the Council fails to answer my specific questions directly. I would therefore ask the Council again;

1. What practical effects on Soviet policy towards Poland have been achieved up to now by the economic sanctions imposed in March 1982?
2. What practical effects on Soviet policy towards Poland does the Council expect to achieve with a continuation of these sanctions?
3. If the Council has been unable to ascertain or is not expecting any practical effects on the Soviet attitude towards Poland, what objectives is it pursuing with the continuation of economic sanctions against the Soviet Union?

9. Question by Mr HUTTON (H-374/83)

Subject: Responsibility to Parliament of COREPER

The President-in-office reminded Parliament on 5 July that COREPER was an organ of the Council and was responsible to it.

Will he now seek the agreement of the Council to publish Press Releases, similar to those of the Council but containing more detail, to inform the European Parliament and the public of the course of discussions in COREPER and of the decisions taken by it?

15.9.83

10. Question by Mr EISMA (H-422/83)

Subject: Transfrontier effects of power stations

It would appear from the Council's and Commission's answers to Written Questions 64/83 and 65/83<sup>1</sup> by Mrs Krouwel-Vlam that the 1976 proposal for a regulation<sup>2</sup> on the introduction of a Community consultation procedure in respect of power stations likely to affect the territory of another Member State is still under discussion because one Member State is strongly opposed to it.

Could the Council say which Member State this is, what its objections are, how the Council intends to resolve this difficulty and why the Council should not perhaps reach a decision by a qualified majority?

11. Question by Mr MARCK (H-425/83)

Subject: Community rules on agricultural products

In October 1982 the European Parliament adopted a resolution by a large majority on the strengthening of controls on the application of Community rules on agricultural products (Doc. 1-528/82).

Why has the Council not taken action on the Commission's proposal for a regulation (COM(82) 899)?<sup>1</sup>

Are there not enough examples of fraud and abuse?

<sup>1</sup> OJ No. L 381 of 31.12.1982, p. 2

12. Question by Mr ANTONIOZZI (H-429/83)

Subject : Agricultural protection and intervention mechanisms

Is it the intention of the Council to inflict irreparable damage on Italian farms with initiatives which would virtually transform the European common agricultural market into a free trade area owing to the radical and progressive dismantling of the protection and intervention mechanisms?

It is particularly requested that the olive oil subsidies be maintained for the benefit of economically weak and socially disadvantaged areas, in accordance with the fundamental principles enshrined in the Community Treaties.

3.10.83

13. Question by Mr OUZOUNIDIS (H-446/83)

Subject : Unacceptable discrimination against immigrants in the form of a special motorcar insurance tariff payable by foreign workers in the FRG

According to press reports, German motor insurance companies intend to introduce, at the latest from the beginning of 1984, a special car insurance tariff payable by foreign workers and particularly Turks, Greeks and Yugoslavs. The premiums to be paid by foreigners (Auslandertarif) would be up to 50% higher than those paid by German citizens.

The German car insurance companies have submitted a request for approval of this special tariff for foreigners to the responsible German state department (Bundesaufsichtsamt). This unacceptable discrimination against (European) foreigners and, particularly, against those from southern Europe is being practised by the insurance companies on the grounds that these persons cause more accidents than German citizens.

What measures does the Council intend to take to protect foreign citizens living and working in Germany from this kind of discrimination, which is creating a climate of fear and fuelling racism in Europe, and what measures does it intend to take to prevent such action being taken in the future?

11.10.83

14. Question by Mrs WEBER (H-452/83)

Subject: Environmental protection measures

What preparations has the Council made to obtain a decision during the Athens summit on implementing the environmental protection measures announced at the Stuttgart summit, in particular with regard to combating transfrontier air pollution and its consequences (the death of forests)?

13.10.1983

15. Question by Mr PEARCE (H-454/83)

Subject : Agricultural surpluses

Is the Council pleased that it is its own actions over recent years in the annual fixing of prices under the common agricultural policy that are the main cause of agricultural surpluses?

13.10.1983

16. Question by Mr SELIGMAN (H-461/83)

Subject : Measures to mitigate unemployment

What does the Council propose to do, to implement Articles 48, 49 and 50 of the Rome Treaty, concerning the mobility of workers, particularly young workers in the Community; in particular the setting up of machinery to put offers of employment in touch with applicants for employment as stated in Article 49 (d)?

14.10.1983

17. Question by Mrs HAMMERICH (H-464/83)

Subject : The Economic aspects of security

The Danish Government has declared that the economic aspects of security do not cover matters concerning cooperation on arms in the Community. However, during the European Parliament's debate on the Fergusson report on 11 October, Commissioner Narjes referred to this very section of the Stuttgart Declaration as a background to discussion of arms production and arms sales.

Does the Council take the view that 'the economic aspects of security' can in any way refer to plans for cooperation on arms production in the Community?

17.10.1983

18. Question by Mr COUSTE (H-468/83)<sup>(x)</sup>

Subject: Preparations for the Athens Summit

Can the Council state whether its discussions to date in preparation for the Athens Summit have been making satisfactory progress as regards the future financing of the Community and the creation of new policies?

19.10.83

19. Question by Mr WELSH (H-470/83)

Subject : Council of Trade Ministers

Following the opaque answer given to my written question 778/83 will the Presidency put the question of regular meetings of Trade Ministers on the agenda for the next meeting of the Council (General Affairs) ?

19.10.1983

20. Question by Mr ISRAEL (H-474/83)

Subject: Human rights - Lomé Convention

Does the Council wish to comment on the fact that it has reputedly instructed the Commission to try to include the human rights question in the negotiations on the future Lomé Convention, a welcome decision on which it is to be congratulated?

19.10.1983

21. Question by Mr TYRRELL (H-486/83)

Subject : Council Directive 83/351/EEC<sup>(1)</sup> on air pollution by gases from engines from motor vehicles, including gases from compression engines

Council Directive 83/351/EEC makes specific reference to Article 100/EEC, the Article under which the Directive was made.

Article 100 expressly provides that the European Parliament be consulted if the implementation of the Directive involves the amendment of legislation in any Member State.

The European Parliament, in its Opinion (OJ C 184 of 11.7.1983, p.131) expressly stated that there be included in this Directive provisions requiring the opinion of Parliament in the event of the Commission making more than merely technical amendments to the Directive. Instead, the Council has removed the Parliament's right of consultation in this area.

Can the Council explain why it has so deliberately removed the right of Parliament to consultation, and does it not regard this as an abrogation of the spirit of the Treaty of Rome?

22. Question by Sir Peter VANNECK (H-501/83)

Community

If the Australian Government succumbs to pressure for the abrogation of uranium ore supply contracts to Community electricity undertakings, what steps will the Council take in conjunction with the Commission in order to ensure that contracts are honoured ?

27.10.1983

23. Question by Mr EPHREMIDIS (H-506/83)

Subject: Facilitating the participation of migrants in the elections to the European Parliament

Owing to rising unemployment, the worsening economic crisis and other factors, migrant workers and their families will experience extremely severe problems in travelling to their countries of origin in order to exercise their right to vote in the elections to the European Parliament.

What measures does the Council propose to take to facilitate their travel and does it propose to make sufficient resources available from the Community budget so that the majority of migrants will not be compelled to abstain from voting?

24. Question by Mrs SCHLEICHER (H-507/83)

Subject: Environmental impact studies

Can the Council indicate what progress has been achieved in its discussions on the Commission's proposal for a directive on environmental impact studies, which major problems are still preventing early adoption of the proposal and what prospects it sees for adoption at the next meeting of the Council of Ministers of the Environment?

QUESTIONS TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE TEN MEMBER STATES OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES MEETING IN POLITICAL COOPERATION

---

25. Question by Mrs DE MARCH (H-467/83) (x) (xx)

Subject: Extradition requests addressed by the Turkish Military Junta to the governments of the Ten

The Turkish military junta has addressed a number of requests for extradition to the governments of several Community countries. The ten Member States are, however, aware of the constant systematic violations of human rights in Turkey, a country where arbitrary imprisonment or imprisonment for expressing opinions contrary to the regime is widespread and people are frequently sentenced to death or tortured. Almost 100,000 persons are thought to be in prison in Turkey.

Turkey is, however, a signatory to the European Convention on Human Rights and has been linked to the Community by an association agreement since 1963.

Do the Foreign Ministers not agree that it is urgent and imperative to adopt a common position on the rejection or blocking of the requests by the Turkish military junta for the extradition of political refugees until such time as individual rights and freedoms are once again respected in Turkey?

28. Question by Mr ADAMOU (H-341/83)(x)

Subject : Heinous policy of the Evren junta

Two Turkish prisoners, Mehmet Demirtzan and Hasan Tzan, who were on hunger strike have died from exhaustion and continual torture in the prisons of Istanbul. Thousands of others are continuing the hunger strike, which began on 8 July in the prisons of Istanbul and spread to prisons in Tsanakale, Malatya, Diyanbakir and the Black Sea, demanding an end to torture and better living conditions. What measures do the Foreign Ministers intend to take to put an end to the torture of prisoners and save the lives of the hunger strikers in Turkey, having particular regard to the steadily growing movement throughout Europe in support of the hunger strikers and condemning the Turkish junta of Evren which suppresses all basic human rights?

30. Question by Sir Peter VANNECK (H-393/83) (x)

Subject : Protection of the Community's oil supplies from the Middle East

In view of the importance to economic and social life in all Member States of oil supplies from the Middle East, has the time come for member states to share the burden in finance, material and men of protecting sea lanes for oil tankers bringing oil to Ireland, Denmark, Britain, Netherlands, Germany, France, Luxembourg, Italy and Greece, only two member states bearing this burden in 1983 through the deployment of naval vessels in the Straits of Hormuz ?

31. Question by Mr ALAVANOS (H-411/83) (x)

Subject: Pressures on the Greek Government to determine its foreign policy

Can the Ministers meeting in political cooperation say to what degree 'political cooperation' is based on the principle of unanimity and whether it is possible only when there is unanimity of opinion among the Ten; and if it is so because there are such vehement reactions to the Greek standpoints on the Boeing affair from the partners in 'political cooperation' themselves?

32. Question by Mr EPHREMIDIS (H-413/83) (x)

Subject: Unacceptable acts of war by the USA in Lebanon

Since the beginning of the second half of September American forces have been intervening directly in the civil war in Lebanon. These actions by the USA go clearly beyond the bounds and the original aims of the multinational force, which was set up to prevent clashes between Israeli and Arab forces, constitute foreign intervention in Lebanon's internal affairs, hit other countries in the region, such as Syria, and generate risks of a more widespread flare-up in the region. The USA's unacceptable acts of war have met with direct and indirect criticism from the governments of EEC Member States such as France, Italy, Greece and others.

Can the Foreign Ministers meeting in political cooperation say what specific measures they are going to take to condemn and discourage American military intervention in Lebanon, which is clearly outside the framework of the EEC's Middle East policy, and to secure the immediate withdrawal of the multinational force, as called for by the National Salvation Front of Lebanon?

28.9.1983

33. Question by Mr HABSBURG (H-313/83)

Subject: Increase in the number of Cuban mercenaries in Angola

Do the Ministers agree that the evacuation of Cuban mercenaries from Angola is a precondition for genuine Namibian independence, since experience shows that failure to do so will undeniably expose this weak country to the danger of unwarranted intervention and even military aggression?

34. Question by Mr LAGAKOS (H-462/83)

9.8.83

35. Question by Mr KYRKOS (H-380/83)

Subject: Extradition of Turkish opponents to the Evren dictatorship

Can the Council of Ministers meeting in political cooperation state whether they will convey to the German Government their opposition to its decision to extradite to Turkey immigrants wanted by the authorities in Ankara? The German Government's decision constitutes not only support for the Ankara regime at the very time when the Evren dictatorship is taking new measures to suppress freedom of the press and political parties but also represents a violation of the fundamental principles of democracy and humanity.

36. Question by Sir Fred WARNER (H-428/83)

39. Question by Mr ISRAEL (H-475/83)

On that day, the powerful Kapata wind was blowing in a north-easterly direction, i.e. towards the Tanzanian border, which is not far from Mpulungu. The four have been missing since 2 July 1983.

During 1982 Commission External Trade statistics show that Benelux imported 1984 tonnes of polyethylene material of less than 3 metres in length and bags from Taiwan against an agreed quota of 48 tonnes. Question by Mr GEROKOSTOPOULOS (H-281/83) *

Subject: Greek edition of the 1980-1981 annual report of Eurydice

In the 1980/1981 annual report of 'Eurydice' (French edition), the end of the chapter headed 'Thèmes et répartition de l'intérêt' states: 'the Guide to school systems applying in Community member countries, which was to be published at the end of 1981, does not include any information about the Greek educational system; the Commission, however, will take the necessary steps to fill that gap'.

The same report also states, in the chapter on 'Effectifs et nouvelles unités', that 'work to establish a national information unit in Greece is proceeding satisfactorily'.

Can the Commission say:

1. If it has taken any steps and, if so, what steps it has taken, to fill the gap noted in the 'Guide to school systems etc.' as regards Greece (cf first paragraph);
2. If the national information unit has now been set up by Greece, and if it is operating, either in experimental or in fully-realized form, satisfactorily?

Question by Mr WEDEKIND (H-364/83) *

Subject : Helicopter crash caused by purifying agent

In September 1982, an American helicopter crashed near Mannheim in the Federal Republic of Germany. After investigations lasting several months, it appears that the accident was caused by a standard oil purifying agent that blocked the helicopter's oil jets. This oil contains minute particles of walnut shells.

Does the Commission know whether this lubricant, which is common in the USA, is also used in the Member States of the Community, in particular for passenger aircraft? Does the Commission agree that the product should be withdrawn from the market?

Question by Mr KAZAZIS (H-256/83) (x)

Subject: European Institute for the Craft Industry and SMUs

On a European Parliament initiative, a token entry was made in the 1983 budget for the establishment of an Institute for the Craft Industry and Small and Medium-Sized Undertakings (Article 7777 of the 1983 budget). The Commission, instead of activating Article 7777 of the budget and taking the necessary steps to establish this institute, saw fit (in the very year we have dedicated to the SMUs) to delete the article in question from the preliminary draft budget for 1984 and replace it with an irrelevant token entry on promoting the activities of the SMUs.

What were the reasons which prompted the Commission to delete Article 7777 on a European Institute for SMUs?

Subject : Chemicals Inventory

By way of implementation of the 6th amendment to the Directive on the classification, packaging and labelling of dangerous substances the Commission has entered into a contract with Chemical Abstract Service (CAS) in the United States. For UK producers this means that chemical substances must first be notified to the Health and Safety Executive, then passed to ISPRA in Italy, which in turn will pass the notification on to CAS in the USA. Will the Commission give details of the contract between itself and CAS, state the likely cost of each notification and indicate whether, given that UK manufacturers will have to make more than 20,000 different notifications, the Commission is satisfied that the procedure is a sufficiently efficient, prompt and cost-effective one ?

Subject: Direct elections to the European Parliament

What is the Commission doing in its preparations for the second direct elections to harness its authority, academic competence and organizing ability with the intelligence, originality and powers of persuasion to be found in the various Member States, and thus - by its wit and simplicity - impress on all the citizens of Europe that casting their vote is the biggest contribution they can make towards harmonious co-existence between the Member States?

60. Question by Mr HALLIGAN (H-491/83) (x)

Subject : "Common Agricultural Policy - Proposals of the Commission"

In its communication to the Council on "Common Agricultural Policy - Proposals of the Commission" the estimated saving in expenditure for 1984/85 is put at 2,500 million ECUs in paragraph 7.6. Notwithstanding the complexity of the hypotheses upon which the saving was based will the Commission give a breakdown of this figure both by country and agricultural sector since there can be no agreed analysis of the impact of the proposals without such basic information. The Communication made no reference to job losses arising from the proposals either in agriculture or in the individual member economies, such as from the multiplier effect. Will the Commission state what direct and indirect job losses are likely to occur in each member state ?

Further, will the Commission state why it did not think it appropriate to copy Members of the European Parliament with the proposals in view of their importance and of Parliament's competence in the matter of the Budget ?

61. Question by Mr KIRK (H-378/83)

Subject: Exports of chrysanthemums to Sweden

The Commission has previously confirmed that the Swedish ban on imports of chrysanthemums from Danish nurseries and elsewhere is contrary to the free trade agreement between the Community and Sweden.

Regardless of the fact that the Commission, through negotiations, has made this problem the subject of detailed discussions between the Danish and Swedish authorities, it must be pointed out that a continued ban on imports by Sweden will have a stifling effect on Danish nurseries. The ban is still operating in practice, and is clearly a protectionist measure on the part of Sweden.

What action does the Commission intend to take to bring about a rapid lifting of the Swedish import ban, with a view to ensuring free trade in chrysanthemums and the like between the Community and Sweden?

62. Question by Mr COLLINS (H-384/83)

Subject : Representation of the retail trade on the Working Group
"Christmas Butter"

Of the ten experts composing the Working Group "Christmas Butter", three were representing the milk and milk product trades. These three representatives were nominated from the organizations EUCOLAIT and UNECOLAIT who have no direct connections with the retail trade and who are therefore unable to speak for the very people who will be affected by the decisions in respect of sales of reduced price Christmas butter.

Would the Commission not agree that as the retail trade is the body who will have to apply and carry out the management of any scheme in respect of sales of reduced price butter, then this body should be adequately consulted at the Working Group where these proposals are formulated and that last years disruption and confusion in the market could be avoided this year if the retail trade had been fully consulted at an early stage in the discussions ?

67. Question by Mr MARCK (H-430/83)

Subject : Harmonization of rules on hormonal fattening

The Commission of the European Communities was given the task of examining ways of harmonizing the rules on hormonal fattening within the European Community as a whole and of formulating proposals.

The Commission requested a committee of independent experts to draw up a report on the subject. The committee was unanimous in its conclusions, which met with a broad consensus among both producer and consumer organizations. Objections were raised by the delegation of one Member State only, prompted by concern for its national trading interests.

What measures does the Commission intend to take with a view to implementing the proposed solution?

Subject : Exports of mineral water to France

Is the Commission aware that the French regulations governing the importation of mineral water into France stipulate that labels must be marked with the indication '1l' in characters 4 mm high, even when the indication of quantity is already imprinted on the bottle itself?

Subject: Pilot project on accidents in the home

It has been established that more than 4 million domestic accidents occur each year in the Community, that there are at least 30,000 fatalities and almost 4 million cases of injury and that the majority of the victims are children, elderly people and women.

2. Question by Mr BOURNIAS (H-443/83)

Subject: Hydroelectric power in Greece

Concerning hydroelectric power in my country, since the Community is aware that Greece, in the field of exploitable waterfall power, is better off in kilowatt-hours per capita per annum not only than all the EEC countries but than all the other Western European countries apart from Norway and Switzerland (20 to 23 thousand million kilowatt-hours per annum), can the Commission say if the Community intends to finance the survey by Greek and foreign specialists, to avoid any further delay in a matter of such economic importance to Greece?

73. Question by Mr OUZOUNIDIS (H-445/83)

Subject : Unacceptable discrimination against immigrants in the form of a special motorcar insurance tariff payable by foreign workers in the FRG

According to press reports, German motor insurance companies intend to introduce, at the latest from the beginning of 1984, a special car insurance tariff payable by foreign workers and particularly Turks, Greeks and Yugoslavs. The premiums to be paid by foreigners (Auslandertarif) would be up to 50% higher than those paid by German citizens.

The German car insurance companies have submitted a request for approval of this special tariff for foreigners to the responsible German state department (Bundesaufsichtsamt). This unacceptable discrimination against (European) foreigners and, particularly, against those from southern Europe is being practised by the insurance companies on the grounds that these persons cause more accidents than German citizens.

What measures does the Commission intend to take to protect foreign citizens living and working in Germany from this kind of discrimination, which is creating a climate of fear and fuelling racism in Europe, and what measures does it intend to take to prevent such action being taken in the future?

Does the Commission consider that the Community is honouring its formal declaration of intent at the time of the Accession of the United Kingdom to the Community that it would provide for favourable treatment of Indian trade with the Community, under the GSP in lieu of Commonwealth Preferences; when under current circumstances, the preferential rate for Indian tobacco (7% subject to a minimum of 13 ECU per 100 kg and a maximum of 45 ECU per 100 kg) results in a higher charge than the non preferential rate of 30 ECU per 100 kg?

Question by Mrs HAMMERICH (H-463/83)

Subject : The Commission's interpretation of points 1.4.2
and 3.2 of the Stuttgart Declaration

Does the Commission take the view that the phrase 'co-ordination of the economic aspects of security' justifies a parliamentary debate on the co-ordination of arms production in the Community? Does the Commission take the view that this phrase refers to joint arms production? It was precisely this phrase that Commissioner Narjes referred to during the parliamentary debate on the Fergusson report on 11 October 1983, prior to supporting, on behalf of the Commission, the plans for Community armaments production and a Community armaments economy.

The Danish Government has already stated that economic aspects of security do not include such matters (in the Foreign Minister's reply on 1 June 1983 to a written question from the Folketing's Community Affairs Committee).

Question by Mrs BOSERUP (H-466/83)

Subject : Right of veto in an enlarged Community

Commenting on the Spinelli Report during the September 1983 part-session, President Thorn said with regard to decision-making in a Community of Twelve : 'The Commission believes that in this Community, in certain fields, unanimity should be replaced by a qualified majority in order to reduce the risk of blockage, which would be greater in a Community of Twelve than of Ten' (quote from Agence Europe, 14 September 1983). Does the Commission take the view that the right of veto ought to be restricted if Spain and Portugal accede ?

82. Question by Mr NYBORG (H-471/83)

Subject: Red tape at the French frontier

A Danish citizen travelling by train from Brussels to Paris on 1 October 1983 was confronted with a new document that had to be completed at the French frontier.

It is an orange card, entitled Carte de Contrôle Entrée - Sortie, and bears the codes 0.006.5106 (ex o.13.1708) (TR 1 C 3). The traveller has to enter his/her name and where appropriate maiden name, date and place of birth, nationality, place of residence, occupation and date and place at which the frontier is crossed.

The orange card, which is for the use of the French police, has to be completed only by travellers not of French nationality.

How does the Commission intend to impress on the Member States that Community citizens are tired of costly and time-consuming trivialities at frontiers, and that the Member States must learn to remove rather than increase the formalities that complicate intra-Community travel?

Question by Mr DELOROZOY (H-481/83)

Subject: Modification of the system for bearer securities

As from 3 November 1984, new provisions<sup>1</sup> on securities will come into force under French law, according to which both registered and bearer securities (stock exchange securities, unit trusts and unlisted securities) will be everywhere replaced by obligatory registration in an open account at a bank or an accredited agency. Since such measures affect the traditional right to secrecy inherent in the physical possession of securities, could the Commission state whether in the short or medium term it is considering a recommendation proposing procedure for modification of the securities along French lines throughout the Community?

87. Question by Mr ADAMOY (H-483/83)

Subject: The crisis in stockfarming in Greece

Stockfarming in Greece, which is the most backward sector of the backward Greek agricultural economy, accounting for 1/3 only of gross agricultural income, is in danger of ruin for the following reasons:

- a) abundant imports of cheaper stockfarming products from the Community (they rose from a value of 115 million dollars in 1980 to 365 million dollars in 1982),
- b) the high cost of animal feed (the price of maize has increased from 7.30 drachmas per kilo in 1980 to 16.5 per kilo in 1983),
- c) the high production costs of stockfarming products and the low prices fixed for the latter by the Community bodies.

The consequence of this situation has been a reduction in the number of bovines from 1,200,000 to 750,000.

What measures does the Commission intend to take to ensure the survival of stockfarming in Greece today and to create the necessary conditions for its further development, having regard to the exceptionally favourable conditions afforded by the Greek climate and soil?
